AWFUL PANIC IN CONVENTION OF NEGRO BAPTISTS

By Associated Press.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 19.—In an awful crush of humanity caused by a stampede in the Shiloh negro Baptist church at Avenue G and Eighteenth street tonight 78 persons were killed and as many more seriously injured. The catastrophe occurred at 9 o'clock just as Booker T. Washington had concluded his address to the national convention of Baptists and in three hours the scene around the church was one indescribable. Dead bodies were strewn in every direction and the ambulance service of the city was utterly unable to remove them until after ... o'clock. Dozens of dead bodies were arranged in rows on the ground outside of the house of worship awaiting removal to the various undertaking establishments, while more than a score were laid out on the benches inside.

The church is the largest one for negroes in Birmingham and the pastor says there were at least 2,000 persons in the edifice when the stampede began. Instructions had been issued to allow no more to enter but the negroes forced their way inside the building and were standing in every aisle. Even the entrance to the church was literally packed.

Just as Booker T. Washington concluded his address, Judge Billou, a negro leader from Baltimore, engaged in an altercation with the ... leader concerning an unoccupied seat and it is said, a blow was struck. Some one in the choir cried "They're fighting."

Mistaking the word fighting for fire the congregation rose en masse and started for the door. One of the ministers quickly mounted the rostrum and admonished the people to keep quiet. He repeated the word quiet several times and motioned to his hearers to be seated. Again the excited congregation mistook the word quiet for fire and renewed the struggle to reach the door. Men and women crawled over benches and fought their way into the aisles and those who had fallen were trampled upon like cattle. The ministers tried again and again to stop the stampede but no power on earth could stay the struggling fighting mass of humanity. The screams of women and children added to the horror of the scene and through mere fright many persons fainted and as they fell to the floor were crushed to death.

The level of the floor is about 15 feet from the ground and long steps lead to the sidewalk from the lobby just outside the main auditorium. Brick walls extend on either side of these steps for six or seven feet and these proved a veritable death trap. Negroes who had reached the top of the steps were pushed violently forward and many fell. Before they could move others fell upon them and in 15 minutes persons were piled upon each other to a height of 10 feet. This wall of struggling humanity blocked the entrance and the weight of 1,500 persons was pushed against it. More than 20 persons lying on the steps underneath the heaps of bodies died of suffocation.

Two white men who were in the front of the church when the rush began ... realizing the seriousness of the situation ... turned in a fire alarm. The department came quickly and the arrival of the wagons ... scatter the crowd which had gathered around the front of the church. A squad of police was also hurried to the church and with the firemen finally succeeded in releasing the negroes from their positions in the entrance. The dead bodies were quickly removed and the crowd inside finding an outlet came pouring out. Scores of them lost their footing and rolled down the long steps to the pavement sustaining broken limbs and internal injuries.

In an hour the church had been practically cleared and the sights which greeted the eyes of those who had come to aid the injured was sickening. Down the aisles and along the outside of the pews the dead bodies of men and women were strewn and the cries of the maimed and crippled were heart rending. In a few minutes the work of removing the bodies was begun.

The Shiloh church is located just on the edge of the South Highlands the fashionable residence section of this city and all the physicians living in that part of town went to the assistance of the injured. As many of the suffering negroes as could be moved by the ambulance were taken to the hospitals and the rest were laid out on the ground and there the physicians attended them. At least 15 died before they could be moved.

During the stampede Booker T. Washington and several other prominent negroes were on the stage and were unwilling witnesses to the frightful catastrophe. No one in the choir or in the pulpit was injured. For a few minutes they attempted to restore order but seeing their efforts were fruitless waited until the struggling crowd had advanced far enough for them to pick up the dead and injured. Most of the dead are women, and physicians say in many cases they fainted and died from suffocation. A remarkable feature of the calamity is that no blood was seen on any of the victims. They were either crushed or died from suffocation.

COURTS MAY BE ASKED TO APPRAISE RESERVOIR SITE

City Council Regards the Price on Brewer Property Too High.

SPECIAL MEETING FOR MONDAY NIGHT

City Attorney Stops Move to Instruct Him to Begin Condemnation Proceedings at Once---Much Business Transacted at the Meeting Last Night.

After reaching the stage of instructing the city attorney to commence condemnation proceedings against property owned by Benjamin Brewer to acquire a site for the high line reservoir and pipe line the council last night accepted the advice of Mr. Sheafor and deferred definite action until another meeting which will be held Monday night. Alderman St. John of the water committee reported that Mr. Brewer would consider no other terms than $1,... an acre and the city attorney expressed his opinion that it would be better for the council to wait and see what it expected to pay with reference to the value of the property before taking summary action toward condemnation proceedings. He said he did not care to give an opinion on the matter upon half an hour's notice and after a lengthy discussion it was decided to postpone action.

... Mr. Brewer ... the ... council ... the ... feasible for the reservoir and that Mr. Brewer had offered ... a ... the city right of way for the pipe line over his property ... only other way ... said would be by condemnation proceedings. Mr. Brewer would sell either 20 or 40 acres ... and 40 acres had been deemed the best. Personally Mr. St. John said he thought the offer was the best that could be secured and he moved that the recommendation of the committee be approved.

Alderman Ayresworth asked Mr. St. John if the committee considered all the sites available ... of the water committee ... He said that Mr. Brewer had made the offer ... other site above the ... picked out and had offered to give 40 acres to the city ... it meant from 4,000 to ... feet in the pipe and that the cost would be greater in the end.

It doesn't seem to me that the land is worth anything like the price asked," said Alderman McIntyre. "I don't think it is worth more than $... an acre and I believe that we should take the matter into court."

Mr. St. John said that, as he understood it, if the matter was taken into court at once it would not mean any delay to the operations on the reservoir. He said that he himself regarded the price as high, but there had been prices quoted the committee on other property deemed suitable for the site and one of the best offers had been $400 for the first acre and $... for each additional acre.

City Attorney Sheafor explained the method of procedure in condemnation proceedings and expressed the opinion in answer to questions that he thought it would take 60 days if not longer to settle the matter in court. The land would be examined and appraised by a jury, he said, and the value fixed.

Alderman McIntyre declared that up to recently property in that locality was hardly worth anything and that an offer of $60 an acre would probably have been accepted.

Police Sergeant M. New ... said in reply to a question from Alderman Capell that ... months ago a party in Philadelphia who then owned the property had offered a large section in that vicinity for $5,000 though he was not sure whether the offer included the proposed reservoir site but went ... not.

There was no ... to Mr. St. John's motion to adopt the recommendation of the committee and Mr. Capell moved that the attorney proceed to bring condemnation proceedings to secure 40 acres or as much as the city required as well as a right of way for the pipe line. Alderman ... seconded the motion.

Attorney Sheafor asked Mr. St. John if the committee had inquired into the price of land with reference to ... to the city and ... Mr. St. John replied ... that big prices had been put on it.

If the value of the property ... be established by a jury ... will we get evidence to show that it ... than $1 ... asked the attorney. It seemed to him ... that ... one would find out what it was going to ... move before going ahead. The land might be ... according to what is going to be made of it, although for agricultural purposes it might be worthless.

This brought forth ... nearly everyone present regarding the manner in which the question of actual value of the land might be established as well as personal opinions as to its present worth, most of which appeared to be that it is almost nil. President Clark ordered the clerk to call the roll on Mr. Capell's motion but Mr. Sheafor again interposed a mild remonstrance.

"I am of the opinion that if the action is ordered it will have to be done by ordinance," he said. "I think that it ought to be postponed for a time."

"Yes and in the meantime the chairman of the water committee might again talk to Mr. Brewer," suggested President Clark.

"I've spent all the time on the matter I want to," replied Mr. St. John to this suggestion. "I'll turn it over to any other member of the council who wants to take it up but I don't care to do anything more. I've chased Mr. Brewer all over town and held him up whenever I met him on the street, and he's given me the same answer every time."

Alderman Capell moved that the recommendation of the city attorney be adopted and all present voted aye with the exception of Mr. St. John, who explained his vote of nay by saying:

"We've voted to issue bonds in the sum of $60,000 to build this reservoir and now we are quibbling about $1,000, yes or even $2,000, and this livelong summer the people on the high ground have been without water in the upstairs portions of their houses. I don't believe the people of the city would stand on a matter of $2,000. I want to see the land bought as cheap as it can be bought but I don't believe in delay. We ought to do something at once. I expect every man in this council has ... he ever ... before he thought he ... thought was right at times when he simply had to have a certain thing. I have paid prices for material that were excessive but I had to do it because I had to ... and that depending ... $6,000 ... the ... drawing nothing and we can't delay any further."

Attorney Sheafor said he thought that Mr. St. John misunderstood him. He was not opposing the purchase of the site if the council wanted to acquire it by purchase they could go ahead right that night and do so but he was undecided about the method of securing it by condemnation and he hardly cared to have the council act on his opinion in the premises when he had only half an hour to consider it.

Alderman McIntyre suggested that the council meet again Monday. Mr. Capell said that Mr. St. John could not be there then and he was desirous that he should be present when the matter was decided. Mr. St. John said that he did not see the use of waiting for him and stated that he was going away today and would not return for a week. Mr. McIntyre's motion finally prevailed.

In connection with the reservoir matter Mr. St. John also reported on the matter of location for a residence for the caretaker of the reservoir at Pikeview stating that the desired land belonged to the North End Land company which wanted $200 for the first acre and $250 for the second acre. He thought that if the Brewer property was not worth $125 the other was certainly not worth $300, and he said the water and land might be included in the condemnation proceedings also if it were not for the fact that it was wanted for residence purposes. President Clark explained that Mr. Sawyer the company's engineer had surveyed a tract which was desirable for the purpose required and after some discussion a motion by Mr. McIntyre that the water committee be given power to act prevailed.

A communication from Dr. J. I. ... was read in reference to the complaint made by B. Ferrin regarding the offset in Dr. ...'s sidewalk on Willamette avenue. The physician secured a grade from the engineer and when he constructed the sidewalk it was eight inches higher than Mr. Ferrin's. Dr. ... still stated in his communication that he regretted the circumstances and that he thought that he had been improving his property as well as others. Mr. Capell asked the attorney if the city street department could make a filling in front of Mr. Ferrin's to correspond with the other walk and Mr. Sheafor said the city could establish a grade and order walks put in all along the line, although it might not put in a filling. The matter was passed after some discussion.

A communication was received from the Midland Bridge company releasing the city from any damages in connection with the transferring of and the building of the bridge over Monument creek on the Mesa road which was filed. On motion of Alderman Capell the indemnity bond of the company was ordered returned.

A petition asking that the western approach to the northern viaduct be widened was referred to the street committee. The petition refers to the Bijou street viaduct and wants the west end moved back and an additional ... made.

The city engineer was instructed to establish a grade on Spruce and Huerfano ... extended east and ... Conejos to Pitkin and Sumter ... in response to a petition from a property owner who desires to build a two-story building at West Bijou and Spruce.

A petition from property owners on East Huerfano asking for lights at Huerfano and Weber and at Huerfano and Cucharas was referred to the street committee.

The communication from the representatives of the Pikes Peak and Seven Lakes Railway company withdrawing its offer to the city for its right-of-way and its placer claims in the Seven Lakes district was read and filed. The communication has been published heretofore.

A communication was read from the attorney for the Colorado Telephone company, transmitting a copy of a contract which the company has with the city of Denver for furnishing the city with free telephones and offering the same terms to Colorado Springs. Under the contract the company agrees to furnish the city one 'phone for every 2,000 population, according to the last census, until the population shall reach 150,000, when it will give one additional phone for each 5,000 until the population shall reach 300,000, when it will furnish one additional 'phone for every 10,000 people. The limitation that the 'phones shall be within two miles of the central or substations of the company is included in the contract. Beyond that distance they must be paid for. The city is not to use any other kind of 'phone or to enter into contractive relations for any other service.

President Clark remarked that such a service would hardly answer the needs of the city, as it uses phones a much greater distance than two miles from the local central station, while under the contract Colorado Springs, with the population credited to it by the last census would receive very few 'phones. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

PRIZE FIGHTING IS KNOCKED OUT IN KENTUCKY

Decision of Court of Appeals ... McGovern-Corbett Fight Will Prevent All Boxing Contests in That State.

By Associated Press.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 19.—The injunction granted yesterday by Judge Emmett Field of the Jefferson circuit court restraining the Southern Athletic club and others from pulling off the McGovern Corbett contest for the featherweight championship of the world at Louisville on Monday evening next was sustained by Associate Judge James D. White in the court of appeals this evening and the contest will not be held in Kentucky. Judge White invited the full bench of the state to sit with him and hear the case, which all but one member did, and the decision is one of the court though the motion to dissolve the injunction was made before a single member of it. A majority of the court expressed the opinion that the glove contest which was enjoined in the lower court is a prize fight and it is immaterial whether the purse was to be evenly divided. The six members of the court sitting divided evenly on the most important legal question raised in the case that of whether the chancellor had power by jurisdiction to restrain the commission of a criminal act. The opinion of the court is brief. In full it reads:

"The majority of the court who heard the application to dissolve the injunction of Judge Field are of the opinion that the contest which has been enjoined is a prize fight and it is not material whether the victor in the contest is to receive more of the reward offered than the vanquished.

"The court is divided equally on the question whether the chancellor has preventive power to restrain the holding of such a contest, Chief Justice Guffy and Judges White and Burnham holding the negative and Judges Durrell, Hobson and O'Rear holding the affirmative. The motion to dissolve is therefore denied."

The decision is, so lawyers say, so far reaching that it will prevent all boxing contests in Kentucky in the future.

Robert C. Gray manager of the Southern Athletic club, tonight declared the 20 round contest between Terry McGovern and Young Corbett, scheduled for next Monday night, off, so far as his club was concerned. Mr. Gray announced that the $30,000 worth of tickets which have been sold for the bout will be redeemed at any bank. The Southern Athletic club is out about $5,000 including the forfeit of $2,500 put up to insure the bringing off of the contest.

Although the Frankfort decision is conceded to be a knockout blow for boxing contests in Kentucky, there is some belief in Louisville that the fight will be held Monday night. Today's injunction was against the Southern Athletic club and Mr. Gray, and the latter announced tonight that his club had severed all connection with the event and submitted to the court's decree. This of course, leaves the field open for some other promoter to take up the contest as neither pugilist was enjoined by today's decision nor was a ban placed upon boxing contests in Louisville.

At midnight it was announced that the fight was off absolutely and unconditionally. An attempt was made to have the two men appear in a six-round bout at one of the theaters, but this was objected to by McGovern's manager and after a conference of several hours' duration between several sporting men of having the two men appear was given up.

W. F. McKEEHAN

FORMER COLORADO SPRINGS MAN DIED IN THE SOUTH

Left Here About Three Years Ago—Was Always a Friend to the Laboring People

News has reached ... the death of the late Wm. F. McKeehan who for many years was a business man of considerable prominence in Colorado Springs. Three years ago he left this city and since that time has been traveling through the south where he had many relatives hoping to regain his health.

He was the son of one of the pioneer Methodist ministers, was possessed of considerable literary ability and in his best days was recognized as a shrewd and capable business man.

When Mr. Benj. W. Steele was editor of the Gazette Mr. McKeehan was a frequent contributor to the columns of the paper. He was also a contributor to the Chicago Inter-Ocean and up to within two weeks of his death contributed articles to the southern press.

He was a strong advocate of early closing and was the first in his line to close the store at 7 p. m. and in this action he was a year in advance of any other business house in the city. While he was not in favor of labor unions he was always considerate of his employes and as long as he had the means dispensed charity with a lavish hand. Although in failing health for some time, his death was unexpected. His body is laid away in the old family burying ground in Pennsylvania amid the scenes of his youth.

The surviving members of the family will make their permanent home in this city.

W. F. HUNT'S ADDRESS TO PROHIBITIONISTS

The Prohibition Alliance held a meeting last evening in the rooms of Dr. Chamberlain, in the Bank building. Several phases of the work were discussed after which W. F. Hunt gave a brief account of the Nebraska Prohibition state convention which he attended at Lincoln. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Hunt for his efficient work during the past year in the cause of prohibition. The alliance regrets very much that he will leave the city very soon to make his home in Lincoln, Neb.

The members of the Prohibition Alliance and friends of the temperance cause are requested to hear the prohibition sermon which will be given by Dr. Boyle Sunday at the First Presbyterian church.

How many votes will be cast for governor in the state of Colorado on Nov. 4, 1902? Read advertisement.

Taylor Plays the Part of Resident Physician

It is thought that the case of Robert Taylor charged with the murder of Frank Shader will be set down for trial when the docket is taken up in the district court Monday. The date may not be within the next two weeks, but as the docket is pretty well cleared up to date it may be reached.

Since Taylor's incarceration in the county jail he has been quietly doing a work that indicates that he is possessed of a kind heart. Whenever any of the prisoners are ill he acts the part of nurse helping them in a score of ways and doing it in such an unostentatious manner that only those who are the recipients of his attention are aware of it. One of the men to whom he has been particularly kind is Charles X. Miller, the man convicted of murder in the first degree for killing William Hinn, a negro, and who is awaiting the disposition of a motion for a new trial. Miller as was stated in these columns yesterday, is a pretty sick man, and it is said that on several occasions when he has had his bad spells Taylor's attention has done much to help him out. There are a number of other prisoners who can testify to Taylor's kind-heartedness and to his skill in caring for the sick if they but had the opportunity, and it is not done for effect by any means. The story would probably not have been known but for an attache of the sheriff's office.

MAINTAINING TRAFFIC ACROSS THE ISTHMUS

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Secretary of the Navy Moody today made public the following cablegram received from Commander McLean of the Cincinnati, the officer in command of the United States naval forces on the isthmus.

"Colon, Sept. 19.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington.

"Have sent following communication to both parties: 'I have to inform you that the United States naval forces are guarding the railway trains and line of transit across the isthmus of Panama from sea to sea, that no person whatever will be allowed to obstruct, embarrass or interfere in any manner with the trains or the route of transit. This is without prejudice or any desire to interfere in domestic contentions of the Colombians.'"

It was admitted by a high official of the navy department today that this government is seriously considering a further reinforcement of the United States naval force on the isthmus and that it is not all unlikely that an additional force to operate along the line of railway will be ordered to the scene in a few days. It is understood that there is no present intention to order more warships to the isthmus as the navy department considers the vessels already there or under order, ample to meet any emergency which may arise on the water.

It was stated in an authoritative quarter today that the information furnished by Commander McLean to the navy department plainly shows that the naval force there is kept constantly on its guard to make good our treaty guarantee of free transmission. So whatever additional force is sent will co-operate with the marines already there and those en route on the Panther in a close watch on the railway.

Governor Salazar, who is the leading Colombian government representative on the isthmus, a barely 30 years of age. He attained his present position through gallant conduct during a siege of Panama several years ago. Partly from his youth and inexperience he has embarrassed the government to some extent on several occasions, notably when some months ago he issued an order to censor all the foreign mail. By direction of his government he subsequently revoked the order.

First annual report of the U. S. Reduction and Refining company shows that the company is in a healthy condition.

M'CARTHY IS MADE PRESIDENT

Funeral Directors Had Election of Officers and Brought Sessions to a Close With a Banquet.

The last sessions of the Western Funeral Directors association were held in the Antlers ball room yesterday morning and evening, winding up with a banquet in the private dining room in the evening. The morning session included an executive session at the rooms of Hallett & Baker, where a lecture on "Anatomy of the Abdominal Cavity and Venous System" was read and a demonstration given. The afternoon session was called to order shortly after 2 o'clock with President Rogers presiding. An address was delivered by Willis P. Howe on "A Traveling Man's Observations and Experiences." This paper was unusually interesting and was listened to intently. Mr. T. G. McCarthy, the well-known Pueblo man, followed with a humorous address on "Gab." Mr. McCarthy's paper was one of the hits of the convention. Dr. Hall of the state board of health did not arrive to deliver his paper. He sent it's own by Prof. H. R. McGraw who is also connected with the state board, but Dr. McGraw was delayed by the wreck at Littleton, and did not arrive until early in the evening. He therefore read Dr. Hall's paper at the banquet.

After the addresses the convention turned its attention to the election of officers and such other business as was necessary to the winding up of proceedings. T. G. McCarthy of Pueblo was placed in nomination for the office of president, Mr. Rogers having previously announced his intention of not accepting the office again. The secretary was instructed by the convention to cast the vote for Mr. McCarthy. This precedent was observed throughout the remainder of the election, the secretary casting the ballot for the gentlemen nominated. Seth Baker of this city was elected vice president, and responded to the cry for a speech in a few chosen words, pertaining to the profession. James McKeon of Denver was elected second vice president, and he also spoke a few words. F. B. Waters of Denver was re-elected secretary and George S. Thompson of La Junta was re-elected treasurer. The trustees chosen were E. S. Sipp of Trinidad and D. S. Cutler of Fort Morgan. Three delegates to the national convention at Milwaukee were elected as follows: C. A. Rogers, Denver; George S. Thompson, of La Junta; John G. Trestze, of Boulder. The alternates chosen were Messrs. McCarthy of Pueblo, Buchholt of Boulder and Hunt of Victor.

On motion of Secretary Waters a vote of thanks was given the Colorado Springs undertakers for their hard work, to the press of the city for their courtesy and to all others who had assisted in entertaining the members. Captain Baker of this city moved to include the hotels but this proposition called forth a protest from some present over the hotel rates here. After some discussion the motion prevailed, however, and the hotels were included. Upon motion of Mr. Rogers, Denver was chosen as the regular meeting place of future conventions. It was also voted to hold the meeting either in July or August as September has been found to be too late in the season. The exact dates of the convention are left to the executive committee. After taking this action the convention adjourned to Hallett & Baker's rooms where they listened to a lecture with demonstration by Professor Barnes.

The members sat down to a sumptuous banquet in the Antlers private dining room at 8:30 last evening. After displays provided by the Antlers staff, the company gave themselves up to a brief period of speech-making, W. D. Walsh of Denver acting as toastmaster. There was no program of speeches, everything being impromptu. At this time Dr. McGraw read Dr. Hall's paper on "The State Board of Health." Following the banquet was a ball, the last event of what has proven a most important meeting of the association. Several members left for their homes last evening and the remainder will go this morning.

VERDICT BY MIDNIGHT VERDICT IN SCOTT CASE

After being locked up in the jury room at the county jail all night, although their deliberations occupied but a small part of that time, the jury which has been hearing the evidence in the case of Joseph Scott, charged with the murder of James Walsh yesterday returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of involuntary manslaughter. W. D'A. Lombard, one of the attorneys for the defendant, immediately moved for five days' time in which to file a motion for a new trial, which was granted by Judge Seeds.

Scott killed Walsh last June at a house on East Huerfano street conducted by a Mrs. Collins. Walsh had entered the house and interfered in a family jar between Scott and his wife and a fight ensued in which Scott killed Walsh by stabbing him in the eye with a pair of shears.

Live Stock and Forage Caused Much Trouble

If it were not for the high price of feed in Colorado Springs the city pound would be a source of big revenue to the city's coffers, at least during the past few months. As it is the city is in much the same position as the milk men who struggle along under tremendous disadvantages in placing the lacteal fluid upon the market on account of the price of feed.

For some time past North Sover street seems to have been a favorite loafing place for bovines of all colors, weights and dispositions. With them were numerous horses and every animal seemed to be imbued with a desire to wreak destruction to lawns and shrubbery wherever there was a chance. The natural result has been to arouse the wrath of the residents of that vicinity and they have hurried to the police with their complaints. Orders were issued to round up the marauders and the city herdsmen have been doing it with an assiduity that has been astonishing to the owners of the horses and cattle.

During the month of June there were taken into the pound 105 head of horses and cattle, not from one vicinity of course. In July the number dropped to 117, but in August it rose again to 133. In one day during the latter part of last month there were 23 head captured in a bunch. After the live stock is installed in the pound it costs the careless owner $1 a head to rescue them. Thus it will be seen that there would be a good profit in the business if it were not offset by the feed bill.

Then too, the herders are liable to get hold of animals which are never rescued for the very simple reason that they are not even worth $1.00 anybody and have been turned out to die. The department must take them in just the same, however, to prevent them from causing annoyance and damage and they have to be disposed of when it is seen that all hope for them is gone. It costs three or four dollars to haul the carcass away, which is a dead loss. The animals are usually condemned by the humane authorities before being killed.

Within the past week or so there have been few complaints received by the police department regarding stray animals.

The Farmer's Success Depends Upon Freedom from Disease and Suffering.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

IS THE MEDICINE THAT HAS MADE THOUSANDS OF COUNTRY TOILERS WELL AND STRONG.

There are thousands of farmers in our land who are rich in broad acres and gold, yet lack that true wealth known as good health.

It is a melancholy fact that men and women in the country districts, breathing the purest air and drinking from God's bubbling fountains and limpid springs, are liable to the same diseases and ailments that come thick and fast to city people. We find rheumatism, neuralgia, debility, dyspepsia, kidney and liver troubles, and blood diseases almost as common in the farmer's family as they are in city homes.

Paine's Celery Compound, Heaven's best blessing to the farming community, has done more for the banishment of dread disease and the building up of health than all other combined medicines. Mr. John Zuepan, a prominent and well-known farmer of Middleport, Ohio, writes specially for the benefit of sufferers in the rural districts; he says:

"Last November I was so badly crippled up with rheumatism, which came on in June, that I could hardly walk without the aid of crutches or a heavy stick. About the forth of November I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound, and after using four bottles I was completely cured, and was able to attend to my usual work as well as when I was forty. I am now sixty-six, and can walk and run as well as a man of thirty."

Amusements

"THE LIBERTY BELLES" TONIGHT.

The big New York success, "The Liberty Belles," will be seen for the first time in this city at the Opera house this evening. A New York exchange says: "Bristling with humor, seething with hilarious comic situations and interpolated from beginning to end with bright and novel specialties and musical numbers, "The Liberty Belles," the new musical comedy by Harry B. Smith, presented by Frank Hennessy's company, held the stage at the Madison Square theater New York, for three months, scoring the greatest financial record in the history of that house. This is a most remarkable and substantial public indorsement of its superlative merits as an entertainment. The story of Mr. Smith's new comedy is a comic structure which has its foundation in a sentimental escapade on the part of Margery Lee, a stage-struck girl engaged to Phil Fullerton, a Columbia junior, and Dorothy Gray, a fellow student, secretly married to Jack Eversleigh, an American cadet. These parts are played by Nevada Hefron, Percy Leach, Gertrude Millington, Harry Stuart. There are three acts, the scenes of which show a dormitory in a young woman's seminary, with the pupils engaged in a clandestine midnight supper the kitchen of the cooking school of "The Liberty Belles" and the veranda and grounds of a fashionable hotel in Florida. The first act has attracted very wide attention because of its novelty and entirely new departure from anything heretofore seen in this city. Twenty very handsome young women appear in all sorts of dishabille costumes, but yet not one word of adverse comment has been uttered against this feature of the performance. The scenery and costumes are superb.

ATKINSON WELL YIELDS CONSTANT FLOW OF GAS

The Atkinson oil well which is being driven just north of the city, is now down a total distance of 1,700 feet and has a remarkably good showing. There is still a large flow of gas, sufficient to keep the boiler going. The ground in which they are working is standing up well and all those interested in the property are greatly encouraged over the outlook.

DELINQUENT MINING COMPANIES MUST HURRY

Several of the mining companies notified of the decision of the governing committee of the exchange that unless their reports were handed in before October 1st they would be dropped from the board have responded. There are several offenders still left, however, and unless they comply with the mandate they will be dropped promptly at the date specified.

SPORTS AND SPORTING NOTES

LOSE TO THE K. C. BLUES

Philanthropists Succeed in Making It Three Straight With the Two Forfeited Games.

BLUES IN LINE FOR THE RAG

Anybody's Game Until the Sixth When K. C. Cinched It—Holly Star on Errors and Robinson Did Good Work at Second for Kansas City

The Kansas City Blues made it three straight from the locals yesterday by winning the only game played of the present series, the other two having gone to the Blues by forfeits. Up until the sixth inning it was anybody's game but in that inning the Corn Huskers bunched hits for the second time in their part of the contest and cinched the victory. McNeeley pitched a good game notwithstanding the fact that 11 hits were made off of him and he fielded his position well. Gibson for the Blues was somewhat erratic on the subject of bases on balls, giving four annuals to the locals, one of them forcing in a run in the fifth inning.

It was evident to all the spectators that Kid Nichols' heart would have been broken if the game had gone the other way and out of compassion for him and in order that the Grizzlies might be brought down more onto an even standing with the other three teams who are making the race for the pennant, a great many were anxious to see the Blues win.

Holly, at short, was not in his usual form by any means and made three rank errors in the first inning that played an important factor in losing the game for the locals. Holly is evidently too anxious to get through. His playing yesterday was about the worst that has characterized his playing this season. As usual, the Nichols crowd started out in run getting. Three sticks were made by them in the first on errors by Holly, a hit by Waldron and a two-sacker by Miller. Two consecutive two-baggers in the fourth brought in another one for them and a muff by Gaston, who was playing first in order to give Everitt a much-needed rest, a series of fielders' choices and an out brought Robinson in for one more in the fifth.

Up to the fifth inning but two runs had been made by the Philanthropists. In the fourth a pass to Lynch, a double by Fleming, a hit by Gaston and a fielders' choice brought in two men, Lynch and Fleming, for two tallies. Previous to the fourth, it had been full of emptiness for the Millionaires, the said Millionaires going out in one two three style. In the fifth, affairs began to assume magnitudinous proportions for Everitt's gang and Kid Nichols had the one real scare of his life. Granville, the first man up, went to first on a hit and Baerwald did the same. Then Gibson did the fakir act with McNeeley's slow grounder, and the bases were full. Lynch knocked one that didn't go more than six feet from the plate and Wilson and Gibson got through scrapping over the ball in time to put Granny out at home. The bases were still full, however, and only one man was out, and just to show that he could do it in this altitude, Gibson presented the locals with Pass No. 3, Good for One Run, and Baerwald scored. The locals still hold three Jacks when Congalton came to bat. Congalton was greeted with the glad hand, and to show the spectators that he appreciated it, he showed them four aces he had tucked up his sleeve. This combination brought four runs in while Miller out in left garden was hoeing cabbage for a living. The next two men were easy money and the circus ended. Gaston poked the breezes and Holly died at No. 1, Robinson to Kemmer. One more was obtained in the eighth. After two men were out, Holly gained the initial sack on an error by Kemmer, who muffed the ball. Two hits by Hemphill and Granville brought him home.

With the score 7 to 5 in favor of US, at the end of the fifth, Kid Nichols got mad and with a wild look in his eyes that boded the locals no good, hypnotized the Blues. Gibson, the first man up for Kansas City in the sixth, hit safely, and four straight singles by Waldron, Miller, Robinson and Kemmer, netted the Corn Huskers three, making them one to the good. Two more men from the banks of the Kaw galloped around the circle for ?? in the eighth. Miller singled, as ?? Robinson and Kemmer, the combination being valuable. The Blues finished with one in the ninth when hits by ?? Shannon and Ketchum and a fielders' choice allowed the first-named gent to ??

"Rabbitt" Robinson, who held down the bag for the Kansas City, played ?? game, making six putouts and ?? assists, two of the latter helping to make double plays. Attendance 600. Score:

REVENGE IS SWEET

So Saith Maupin, the "Whirlwind Pitcher" of the Saints.

GRIZZLIES WERE EASY MARKS

Got Ten Hits But They Were Scattered and Faultless Support by the Entire Saintly Aggregation Made the Victory a Cinch

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Sept. 19—Maupin, the whirlwind pitcher for the pennant chasers, got sweet revenge by winning the first game of the present series by a score of 7 to 2. In a previous game which he pitched on the local grounds he was batted out of the box in the first inning, and his associates say he has been anxious to redeem himself ever since. When he went to the box today it could be seen that he intended to win if hard work would accomplish that end. He was backed by as good support as was ever seen on the local diamond. The locals made 10 hits off of him but they were scattered, two being the greatest number made in any one inning. Whenever a Denver got on a base Maupin proceeded to settle down and either strike out the next three men out or hand them such a bunch of rings that all they could do was to knock pop up flies which seldom cleared the infield. During the entire game he wore a smile of satisfaction that was beautiful to behold. McCloskey was put in at the beginning of the game but was retired at the end of the third inning after six hits netting five runs had been made. Whitridge finished the game for the locals and pitched superb ball, allowing them but five hits and two runs. The fans watched the Colorado Springs-Kansas City game with more than the usual interest. The report that Congalton had knocked a home run when the bases were full caused a wave of applause to sweep over the bleachers and grandstand, but it was short lived as the message Kansas City made three in the sixth followed almost immediately. In the fourth inning today Maupin was hit in the stomach by a ball off Frisk's bat but he was game enough to make the play and retire Frisk at first. Maupin was then compelled to have the game after until he could recuperate from the ?? of the blow. In the ninth Wilson was hit on the hand by Belden's bat, but after a short intermission he was able to finish the inning and the game. The result of today's game makes the finish even more interesting than it was before, and no doubt the closing series with Kansas City will be the hardest fought games on the home grounds this year. As it is, Milwaukee is only ?? points behind Denver and Kansas City two points. Should Milwaukee lose three to Omaha and Kansas City make three from Denver the pennant would go to some other club.

Mr. Packard anticipates the biggest attendance in the history of Denver baseball at the Sunday game. Already all of the box seats and a few private ?? of the grandstand ?? have been sold. No doubt the result of the Sunday game will establish who wins the pennant. Score:

CRANE

SON OF CRIPPLE CREEK'S MAYOR IS COMING

He Is Said to Be a Good Football Player and Will Endeavor to Make the College Team

Word has been received by Coach Holgrin of the college eleven that Crane, a well known football player of Cripple Creek, intends to enter college this fall and if he does the college will have a valuable addition to the football team. Crane is the son of Mayor Crane of Cripple Creek and is a knight of the pigskin of some repute. He played half on the Salt Lake City High school team last year and was considered one of the best men for that position in the state of Utah. He is a good big husky fellow, weighing 170 pounds. Crane has not matriculated in the college as yet, but will be down today or tomorrow to confer with the dean in regard to entering school.

LAST SERIES OF THE SEASON STARTS TODAY

The Millionaires try their luck today with the Saints from Missouri. The present series of three games will wind up the Western league ball in this city for the season. One game will be played and a double header tomorrow. Today's game will be called promptly at 3:30, with Newmeyer officiating as slab artist. With the kind of ball that the locals have been playing against the leaders the locals should make short work of the Anti-Sinners organization. And there are some who believe that the locals will take all three of the contests. St. Joseph has put up good ball with the Grizzlies and has managed to hang the hooks on the leaders for one game out of the three, so they are not so very easy.

PACKARD IS IN DIRE STRAITS

Denver Magnate's Twirlers Appear to Be All Used Up.

HE IS AFTER SOUTH-PAWS

But Jones and Harry Newmeyer Could Do Nothing for Him—Burns Is Not "Sluffing" Any Games Just Now

It was rumored around the streets yesterday among the fans that Jones and Newmeyer were going to Denver to help Packard out on the final series with Kansas City, and which means much to Denver in her race for the pennant. The pitching staff of the Grizzlies is badly crippled as a result of their recent games with the top notchers of the Western league and yesterday morning Packard telephoned down to the two Millionaires, asking them to come up for the last three games and it is understood offered them a neat sum for their services. Manager Burns is not the kind of a chicken to play Kansas City that kind of a trick and he refused to lend the services of both Jones and Newmeyer for the remaining games with St. Joseph. The players were not very anxious to go as much as they would like to do Packard a favor, but their contracts with Manager Burns do not expire until Monday and that settles it.

The impression has started some way that Tom Burns is acting that he had no show to win the pennant for this city, would let his remaining games and help some other team to win it. But not so. Manager Burns has given his men orders to fight just as hard for the last game as they did for the first in April, even though they are holding down sixth place in the percentage column.

FIRST BLOOD

FOOTBALL CASUALTIES BEGIN EARLY THIS SEASON

Two High School Warriors Are Damaged in a Scrimmage on Washburn Field During Practice—Are Laid Up

While out practicing on Washburn field yesterday afternoon with the High school football squad, Robert Clough and Cleve McBroom, two High school students, were badly injured in a scrimmage. Clough had his collar bone broken and McBroom had one of his ribs cracked. They had been in a mixup and in the scrimmage over the ball several other members of the squad fell upon them with the above result. They did not feel any pain and did not know how badly they were injured until they had quit playing. Their injuries will fix them up for some time and stop their football aspirations for this year.

CHINA ON VERGE OF NEW BOXER UPRISING

By Associated Press

Washington Sept 18—China is on the verge of another Boxer uprising which may equal that of 1900 according to mail advices received at the state department from Minister Conger dated last month. The troubles appear to arise principally from extortionate taxation combined with resentment against the presence of missionaries thus justifying the judgment of the department of state, which pointed out to the powers that the demand for excessive indemnities would result in serious internal troubles in China.

Mr Conger's first advice bears date of August 6 from Peking, and he reports serious antiforeign riots near Chentu in the province of Szechuan, in which a number of native Christians had been massacred and chapels destroyed. Mr Conger appears to have acted with energy upon telegraphic complaints from Dr Canright, an American medical missionary at Chentu, not only addressing the Chinese foreign office by letter but calling there in person to impress upon the officials the importance of an immediate and effective action, and finally succeeding in causing the removal of the local Chinese officials who had failed to repress the riots and preserve life and property.

Mr Conger incloses with his report the communication that passed between himself, Dr Canright and the foreign office. Under date of June 20 from Chentu, Dr Canright telegraphed:

Szechuan repeating (troubles of) 1900. Chapel burned. 10 Christians killed. Boxers (have been) multiplying (for) four months. Officials taxed.'

Mr Conger immediately telegraphed Dr Canright to demand adequate protection for missionaries and the native Christians from the local officials. He also addressed a note to Prince Ching at the foreign office stating that there were several American missionaries and many chapels and converts in Szechuan and that it was necessary that immediate provision be taken to stamp out these troubles at their very inception.

In his answer Prince Ching enclosed a copy of the following imperial edict:

"Some time ago a number of local outlaws was banded together in the district of Tzo Yang and made trouble, whereupon I dispatched troops to disperse them. The leading criminal, Li Kang Church, and others were arrested and executed but now the magistrate of the district Ma Cheng Chi, reports that at T'Ch-Ku Chiao, in his district, outlaws over a thousand strong suddenly made a night attack and destroyed a church which the British or American society had built. The preacher, Chu Ch'Eng-Wei and four church members were also killed. They also burned some houses and killed three Christians. I sent troops in all haste and deputed besides an official with rank of taotai, to proceed with braves to attend to this matter.

"Such fierce and lawless outbreaks should certainly be quickly put down. They must on no account be allowed to spread. We command Kwei Chun to strictly order the troops to disperse the rebels and their followers to seize the ringleaders and to punish them according to the rigor of the law and so nip the rebellion in the bud.

"We feel a great pity for the missionary or preacher and others who for no fault of theirs have lost their lives and command that adequate relief may be at once given.

"As for Ma Ch'Eng-Chi the magistrate of Tzo Yang who it is said has not long been in the office because he was remiss in taking precautionary measures we demand that he be removed from office and that he be given a limited time in which to capture the criminals.

"As there may be outlaws in other places, who rouse the suspicions of people, spread rumors and make trouble, the local authorities should be sternly instructed to make careful search and put a stop to all such things, to take special precautions so as to get rid of bad characters and to encourage the lawabiding people. They must give real protection to the chapels and missionaries without the least remissness.

Besides sending a telegram to the viceroy of Sze chuan that he should at once carry out the imperial will as in duty bound, we have reverently copied the edict and sent it for your excellency's information.

With compliments of the season.
Cards of Prince of Ching
Ministers of the Board of Foreign Affairs.

Dated 21st day of the fifth moon (June 26 1902)."

Another dispatch from the foreign office to Mr Conger dated July 2 states that the viceroy reported that the missionary killed was a Chinese and that quite a number of leading Boxers had been captured and punished and a sharp lookout was being kept for those still at large.

Mr Conger again had occasion to address the foreign office on July 20 informing them that Dr Canright had again reported that robberies and massacres were occurring daily, that all were in great danger and that he had demanded protection in vain. The minister urged the foreign office to take more effective measures "in order to avoid the fearful responsibility of a further loss of life and property."

The foreign office replied that several edicts had been issued directing the viceroy to suppress the troubles. It had received a telegram from that official stating that the rebel Hsiung Ching He of Jen Chou Hsian, made his appearance suddenly at the head of a crowd and burned a chapel and some 30 odd houses early in that moon, and also killed a Christian. They also committed other outrages, whereupon the viceroy dispatched troops to the scene, who killed some 20 or more people. The leader of the riot was also captured and orders were given to have him beheaded and his head exposed. The rebels at other points were also attacked by the government troops and routed. Three or four hundred of them were killed. The judge of the province reported that there was no need for the missionaries to seek temporary refuge.

KANSAS CITY, MEXICO AND ORIENT

By Associated Press

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 18.—A. E. Stillwell, president of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad, returned today from a three months stay in England, where he went to perfect the financial scheme for the building of the Orient line and the vast terminal system in Kansas City. Mr. Stillwell was accompanied from England by Lewis Rendell of London, attorney for the finance board of the Orient, J. C. Van Marle of Amsterdam, Baron Koenig and L. Shwab of Germany; W. A. Simpson and F. D. Tuckett of London and John Perry.

Mr. Stillwell returns from England and the continent accompanied by those who will contribute to the building the line from Kansas City to Topolobampo. The party will remain in Kansas City three days and will leave Saturday for Mexico on a trip of inspection along the projected route of the road.

"Most satisfactory progress in being made in every direction," said Mr Stillwell. "The circle of investors in this enterprise both in this city and abroad, is rapidly enlarging. The funds for the completion of the road are assured and we expect to finish and operate the system as soon as men and material can build it."

will involve an expenditure of $2 000 000.

ACCIDENT TO DRY DOCK AT HAVANA

By Associated Press

Washington Sept 18.—United States Consul Bragg at Havana has cabled the state department information of the pressing needs of assistance to the big floating steel dry dock there which was recently purchased by the United States from Spain. He says that the dock broke near the center while the end sections were being suspended.

Secretary Moody received the following telegram from Lieutenant Commander Edward J. Dorn who was recently placed in charge of the naval property at Havana:

While self-docking end pontoons floating dry dock broke in two at gangways. Side walls ruptured. Request naval constructor sent at once.

Naval officials are not prepared to give an estimate of the damage to the dry dock without more detailed information concerning the injury. The assumption would be that if the dock literally broke in two it would have sunk. Naval Constructor Gillmor has but recently returned to Washington from Havana where he inspected the repair work upon the dock and it is probable that he will be sent at once to Havana.

Rear Admiral Bowles, chief constructor of the navy, is inclined to think the accident to the dock is very serious. Later in the day it was decided to send Naval Constructor Taylor, one of the oldest constructors in the navy, to Havana to investigate the accident to the dock.

BOER COLONISTS FOR INDIAN RESERVATIONS

By Associated Press

Johannesburg Transvaal Sept 18.—Mr. Dieprink who was formerly a member of the land and who was deported because he refused to take the oath of allegiance when General Roberts entered Johannesburg has returned here from the United States where he declares he had an important interview with President Roosevelt.

Mr Dieprink's object was to see if it was feasible for burghers to settle in America. He says that throughout the interview President Roosevelt was entirely in sympathy with him and approved of his idea and that he promised that if Mr. Dieprink could get a sufficient number of burghers to grant them farms on the Indian reservations.

Mr Dieprink is now acting on these assurances, but it is doubtful if he can get recruits to go to the United States as the burghers are showing no great desire to emigrate.

ODD FELLOWS EXCLUDE MIXED BLOOD MEMBERS

By Associated Press.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 18.—The sovereign grand lodge, I. O. O. F, by a vote of 156 to 18, repealed the amendment to the constitution adopted at Indianapolis in 1901 admitting members of mixed American and white blood. The debate was spirited and the amendment was supported in a vigorous manner by the Indian Territory delegates who originally secured its adoption on the ground that many men of high character have Indian blood in their veins. The delegates who opposed the amendment, especially those from the southern jurisdictions, expressed the fear that if adopted it would prove the opening wedge which might eventually result in admitting the negro to membership.

SITUATION ON THE ISTHMUS OF PANAMA

By Associated Press

It is said that there was no interruption to travel over the railroad and that arrangements have been made with the railroad company to inspect their trains as they are each Colon and Panama this step being taken to avoid any surreptitious approach of the revolutionists to either of those cities as happened in the case of Colon. The government expressed the opinion that the American guards placed on the trains by direction of commanding naval officer were not necessary.

At the legation the officials on the situation is now prompting it in for some time as with the gradual addition of reinforcements to Colombian troops the danger of an attack by the revolutionists becomes [illegible] than before.

The secretary expects to go west in time to be with President Roosevelt for a day or two before he delivers his address at Peoria. The September 24. When rescued Mr. Wright was exhausted and on the point of releasing his hold, which would have meant a fall of 100 feet to the hard floor of an empty bin, and almost certain death. He had entered the elevator to inspect some wheat. Making a misstep, he fell into the chute but succeeded in clutching the edge, and hanging by his hands. Mr Wright's calls for help were finally heard by an employe who pulled him out. He fainted then and was unconscious for nearly an hour.

PRESS SUPPORTS BY GREAT POWERS

By Associated Press

Berlin, Sept 18.—The German foreign office has received a note from the British government inviting some action on the part of the signatories of the treaty of Berlin of 1878 regarding Roumania's treatment of Jews. The British note is shorter than that of the United States on the same subject but it has the same tone. It is assumed here that Great Britain knew of the United States action beforehand and acted in support thereof.

The United States' action is regarded as being quite within her rights in seeking the assistance of the signatories in preventing an influx of indigent immigrants which is recognized as a substantial grievance. These two notes will result in an interchange of views between the powers as to what action is feasible. In the meantime it is expected that Roumania will take cognizance of the United States protest and defend her case upon her own initiative before the signatories.

The foregoing represents the views of the German government but the press knowing nothing of the British note seems to consider the United States action as simply chivalrous and as not likely to result in practical measures.

In a dispatch from Vienna the correspondent of the Standard says the note of the United States with regard to the treatment of Jews in Roumania has been communicated to the powers which are parties to the treaty of Berlin, and European governments like Austria-Hungary which has looked on and done nothing, have been placed thereby in a somewhat humiliating position.

"I am afraid," cables the correspondent "that the result of America's action will be nil. What King Charles of Roumania, a just and humane sovereign, could not achieve; what a number of ministers—Conservative, Liberal and Unionists—have attempted in vain, what even the Jewish bankers of Frankfort, Berlin and Vienna who several years ago failed to deal in Roumanian securities when Roumania urgently needed a foreign loan, have not been able to bring about, namely, justice to the Jews in the country, the note of the United States is extremely unlikely to effect, however well meant."

AMERICAN PRIESTS ORDERED TO MANILA

By Associated Press

Philadelphia Sept 18.—An important step toward the solution of the troubles in the Philippine islands caused by the presence of the Spanish friars there was taken today at Villa Nova college when the Most Rev. Thomas Rodriguez, O S A of Rome prior general of the Augustinian order throughout the world, announced that Rev. Daniel O Mahoney of Andover, Mass., and Rev. J F McErlaine of Villa Nova had been ordered to the Philippines as pioneers in the movement of American priests to those islands to succeed the Spaniards. The two priests will leave for Manila within the next two weeks and will be followed in a short time it is believed by several others. Both clergymen chosen are distinguished and able members of the order. They were selected from among about a dozen volunteers who offered their services to the prior-general in case he needed American Augustinians for the Philippines. Many of the Spanish friars in the Philippines belong to the order.

"We go there to carry out the program which has been decided on by the prior-general," said Father O'Mahoney. "We are fully cognizant of the great work done by the friars of our land and orders in the Philippines and go to them as brothers working in the same cause. We have no idea how long we will remain or how many Augustinians will be sent to the islands."

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT AMERICAN CLAIMS

By Associated Press

Minneapolis Minn Sept 18.—Father Anatoly of the Greek Catholic church of this city tonight admitted that he was in possession of ecclesiastical documents tending to confirm the American claims to the rich gold-bearing territory in the far northwest which has been in dispute between the United States and Great Britain for years. These papers consist chiefly of reprints and surveys authorized by Russia when Alaska was in the czar's domain.

Father Anatoly was sent to Alaska by the Greek church in 1897 and he remained there four years. He made a special study of the country, its resources and its history and it was on account of his position in the church that he was enabled to secure documents that promise to materially aid the American government in proving its Alaskan claims.

Among the papers in the possession of Father Anatoly is a copy of the Alaskan treaty in the English and Russian languages. Accompanying this treaty is an Alaskan priest's narrative showing that in 1816 the Russian trading company had a dispute with the Hudson Bay company of Canada and destroyed some of the latter's property. The Russian concern then ceded a strip of territory about 10 miles wide, located 54 degrees, 40 minutes longitude, near the mouth of the Stikine river, for a term of years.

The Hudson Bay company was to collect rents for this period in this territory and have exclusive domain. But the tract was never given back and Father Anatoly says it is now usurped by British authorities.

RIOTS CONNECTED WITH STREET RAILWAY STRIKE

By Associated Press.

Glen Falls N. Y., Sept 18.—The 20th day of the Hudson Valley street railway strike saw a car start from here over this division in charge of deputy sheriffs and militia and manned by non-union men. As the car proceeded north from the power house jeers came from the bystanders. On its progress through the Bank square the conductor was struck by a bystander and the car stopped the militia getting off and clearing a space around the car. After a short delay it proceeded.

A car from the power house at Fort Edward was stopped several times by breaks in the trolley wire, and at Sandy Hill a crowd of several thousand assembled. A false alarm of fire was rung and the hose cart run on the track and was left standing and an attempt was made to place hose on the rails. The car was sent ahead and demolished the hose cart.

District Attorney Pratt read the riot act to the crowd which, after a time, dispersed. Sheriff Austin called on Captain Dennis of Company L National guard, stationed at Whitehall, and that company reached the power house here early, where they are encamped on railway property near company K.

WILL NOMINATE CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED SPEAKER HENDERSON

By Associated Press

Dubuque, Iowa, Sept 18.—It is announced tonight that Speaker Henderson does not intend to resign the speakership at the coming session of congress.

By Associated Press.

Dubuque, Iowa, Sept 18.—The Republican congressional committee of the Third district met here today and decided to call a convention at New Hampton Sept 25, to consist of the delegates to the convention which nominated Speaker Henderson to nominate a candidate to succeed him. This action was taken after a consideration of the Iowa election law. This afternoon the committee members called upon General Henderson and requested him to reconsider his withdrawal. He declined to do so, saying his decision was final.

Before adjourning the committee made the following statement:

"It is with deep regret that we find ourselves compelled to reconvene the delegates of this district for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent this district in the national house. This is especially true when we realize that the necessity of such action is caused by the refusal of our present member to accept the nomination heretofore tendered him unanimously by a convention called. In his declination we feel that we lose an able, capable leader of great worth and national prominence such as can be attained only by one of sturdy character, unusual natural ability and ripened experience in the field of statesmanship. We part with him as a leader with reluctance. While thus compelled to release Speaker Henderson we do so with no feeling that the selection of his successor will be without merit or that there will result any danger as to the result to the Republicans of this district in the coming election."

Special Prizes Start Guesses on the Vote

There has been a decided spurt in interest in the guessing contest among the Gazette readers. The contest is for the cash prizes, aggregating $500, which the Gazette is going to give away to the people who prove to be able to guess closely on the result of the vote for governor in his state.

And the special prizes are beginning to arouse great interest.

This is not a contest wherein the contestants guess who will be elected, and the vote that each candidate for governor gets makes no difference except in so far as it figures in the total vote. The contestants are to guess on the number of votes that will be cast for governor, meaning the total number of votes received by all candidates.

In addition to the prizes of $100 and less, the Gazette offered two special prizes of $25 each, one of which has been already won and the other is now being contested for. To the person making the closest guess received by the Gazette prior to the 15th of this month, a special prize of $25 is to be given, this prize, of course, having now been won by somebody, the name of the winner being unknown until the votes are counted after election. To the person making the closest guess on the vote for governor, received by the Gazette between the 15th of this month and the 1st of October, another special prize of $25 is to be given.

The interest in the contests has reached the point where numbers of guesses are received with each mail. It promises to be the most exciting contest ever conducted by a newspaper in this community.

OPERATIONS RESUMED

Full Force of Men Employed on Properties of the Cripple Creek Mining and Development Company—Annual Report of U. S. Reduction & Refining Company.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Sept. 19.—Work was resumed today on the properties of the Stratton-Cripple Creek Mining & Development company, and tonight a full force of men is employed. At the John A. Logan, American Eagles and Zenobia properties of this company on Bull hill, a slight accident interfered with the resumption of work when the whistles blew at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The big 40-drill compressor at the John A. Logan broke down, and as this compressor furnishes air not only to the Logan but to the American Eagles and Zenobia, work was interfered with. During the shut-down, water accumulated in the cylinders, and when steam was turned on this morning, the cylinder head was broken as was the cross arm. This damage, according to Superintendent Johnson, has been repaired, and tonight a full force is employed. The Globe hill properties as well as the Chicago and Cripple Creek tunnel were in operation all day.

The first annual report of the United States Reduction & Refining company, to be submitted to the stockholders at their first annual meeting on the 24th inst., shows that this company is in a healthy condition. The company expended $12,116,195.29 in acquiring the property and plant. The income during the year from the various plants under operation amounts to the sum of $1,368,673.01. In addition to this amount, the company received as premiums from bonds and interest, a sum sufficient to make the income for the year reach the total of $1,373,849.48. Among the items of expense are the following: General expense of all kinds, legal and official salaries, advertising, taxes, etc., $152,668.71; cost of maintaining the idle plants for the year, $13,015.09; cost of organization, $21,066.99. During the year the company declared two dividends, one on preferred stock amounting to $176,886, and the other on common stock, amounting to $118,038. After paying out the various amounts, there was left to be added to the surplus of the company the sum of $170,809.09.

Barr & company, leasing on the deep shaft of the Pinto of the Free Coinage company on Bull hill, have just closed a shipment of 40 tons of two-ounce ore. The annual meeting of the stockholders of this company will be held on or about the 25th inst., and at that time the future policy of the company will be decided.

McCloud and McKenzie have been granted a lease on the Whip-poor-will, adjoining the Dante on Bull hill. The lessees have installed a hoist and have already commenced work.

During the past week there has been shipped from the Glorietta lease on the Hull City placer of the Independence Consolidated company, 50 tons of three-ounce screenings and 20 tons of washings expected to average .. in gold to the ton.

Quite a little development work is being done by Connors and Steele, leasing on the Red Spruce on Gold hill, whose recent strike was reported in these columns a few days ago. The ore was found in a drift at a depth of 360 feet. An eight-inch streak carries silver values of 160 ounces and about two ounces in gold to the ton. The vein averages about four feet in width and the screenings run about one ounce.

At the Shurt off No. 2 on Bull hill, the work of installing a compressor has interfered with production during the past week. However, 25 tons of $100 ore was marketed yesterday.

The work of sinking the shaft at the Theresa on Bull hill has been suspended for the present, in order to allow the miners to enlarge the station at the 600-foot point. Sinking will be resumed in all probability next week. Three carloads of $60 rock went out from this property yesterday.

From the Blue Bird property on Bull hill, three carloads of two-ounce screenings were sent to market yesterday.

Dr. Sutherland and associates, leasing on the LaBelle of the Golden Cycle company, today marketed 10 tons of two-ounce screenings.

Work will be resumed next week on the Santa Rita property on the south slope of Squaw mountain. Caley and associates have this lease.

GOOD BODY OF ORE OPENED ON PRINCE ALBERT PROPERTY

Lessee Gray, operating on block 12 of the Prince Albert property, which comprises the old workings of the mine, has opened a good body of ore at a depth of a little over 300 feet and about that distance from the shaft. A shipment of 10 tons was sent out Thursday to the Eagle sampler which ran something over $50 to the ton, the exact figures being 2.64 ounces. So far the lessee has been unable to determine the extent of this body but he is confident that it is a continuation of the old ore shoot from which several hundred thousand dollars' worth of ore was shipped some years ago. As a result of this strike the stock was in considerable demand on the exchange yesterday.

During the present week there have also gone out from the property four shipments of low-grade ore that averaged about one ounce to the ton. In addition to this lease operated by Mr. Gray there are three other lessees at work upon the property.

PRODUCTION FOR SEPTEMBER WILL SHOW GOOD INCREASE

Mr. J. D. Ford, the well-known mining man, returned yesterday from Cripple Creek where he went on a trip of inspection. Mr. Ford, in addition to visiting the El Paso, visited several other properties in the camp and reports the entire district as exceptionally active. All the large properties are looking well and production is being steadily maintained. It is thought in some quarters that the production for September will show a considerable increase over the previous months of the year. Mr. Ford visited the Vindicator and reports substantial progress on that property which has the reputation of being one of the best managed in the camp. Taken all together, Mr. Ford states that he never saw the camp when it looked as prosperous as it does at the present time.

WILD HORSE MINE IS PRODUCING HIGH GRADE ORE

Mr. F. M. Woods of the United Mines company reports some remarkable shipping from the Wild Horse mine owned by that company. One shipment that recently went out from the property ran 50 tons of ore that gave returns of 25 ounces to the ton, a money value of over $25,000 for the shipment. This is the largest shipment of such valuable ore sent out by their properties, although small shipments have run fabulously high. In addition to this one bonanza shipment they are sending out from 25 to 50 tons of ore per day that runs from 5 to 25 ounces to the ton. The Wild Horse is in the finest condition of its career and the ore reserves are of such size as to promise continued shipments.

MARY CASHEN STRIKE IS GAINING WITH DEVELOPMENT

The recent strike on the Mary Cashen mine is gaining in value with development and promises to be much greater than was at first thought. In the 600-foot level of the mine an ore body has been opened up that is from six to eight feet in width. The operators have drifted on the vein for a distance of about 35 feet. The vein has a general tendency from north to south and from the ore being of the same character as that of the Gold Coin, it is thought the vein is the same. The last shipment sent out by the lessees consisted of four carloads and returned values of better than $30 per ton.

SINKING SHAFT ON THE MAVERICK MINE AT ROSITA.

A large force of men is now employed on the Maverick mine near Rosita. They are at present engaged in sinking the shaft and this work will be pushed ahead with all possible speed in order that a couple of levels can be run and the vein proven up as to size and value in drifts. In addition to this work there will be considerable crosscutting done as a parallel system of veins seems to exist in that portion of the ground now being worked. The shaft house and hoist are all in place and the camp is taking on an appearance of renewed activity. The Custer Mining & Realty company has engaged William Cochran, formerly with the Bassick mine, to manage the Maverick and they will furnish him all necessary requisites to opening up a big mine. Present showings indicate success for the Maverick. Assays now taken show 80 ounces of silver to the ton and this showing is expected to increase with development.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 19.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Jobbing distribution continues active and retail business is improving. Now that the corn crop is practically made and the only possible changes are those of quality, the disposition to book fall and winter orders is unrestrained at the west and northwest. At the south the tone of trade reports is notably cheerful, largely owing to higher cotton prices, because crop accounts are not so favorable as a week ago. Collections are as a whole good and the consensus of reports as to this and as to money conditions points to good supplies of the circulating medium of the country at large. Whatever stringency is noted more than is usual at this time is limited largely to the employment of money in speculation. The claim is made that plenty of money in the interior and indeed at all centers for ordinary purposes is available.

The selling position seems to be the strongest side of the price situation, except possibly in the cereals and agricultural products generally. Even here the fine financial position of farmers enables them to market their products slowly and no accumulation of moment is recorded except in cattle receipts, which this week surpassed all records. Notable strength is exhibited in manufactured goods. The coal situation deserves notice. The delay in the settlement of the strike throws increased pressure on the bituminous product and prices for that article are now at least one-quarter higher than the low point before the strike began. Anthracite production is slowly but surely increasing as more mines and miners go to work, but the necessities of some retail buyers make for fancy prices for what is left. A long season at full time will be necessary to restore stocks of anthracite to old dimensions.

There has been a slight easing of the car famine as to coke and coal supplies, and the furnace situation in the valleys is therefore better, but the eastern mills are complaining of delayed supplies.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending September 18, aggregate 5,485,323 bushels, against 5,444,142 last week, 3,840,574 in this week last year, and 3,535,857 in 1900.

Wheat exports since July 1 aggregate 55,537,065 bushels against 73,181,846 last season and 38,519,690 in 1900.

Business failures in the United States for the week ended September 18 number 182 as against 107 last week; 158 in this week last year.

In Canada for the week there were 18 as against 18 last week.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REVIEW

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 19.—R. G. Dun & company's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Domestic trade continues favorable, higher rates for money having thus failed to check industrial operations or unsettle confidence. The stringency is considered of only temporary importance to speculators while large imports of gold promise relief. Crops are making encouraging progress despite some injury from frost. Labor disputes are few, the anthracite coal strike being the only one that retards progress and each week shows some increase in output. Fall distribution of merchandise has begun unusually early, while the volume of orders already placed indicates much the heaviest aggregate on record. Shipping departments are working vigorously, and payments are promptly made. Traffic congestion causes complaint, yet railway earnings thus far available for September show a gain of 4.9 per cent over last year's returns and 15.7 per cent over 1900.

Official returns of foreign commerce during August show improvement in exports over the last preceding months that was indicated by weekly movement of merchandise, and staples and imports far surpassed the corresponding month in preceding years. This liberal buying in foreign markets testifies to well-sustained domestic consumption. Relief comes slow to consumers of coke although each week brings a new high record of output.

Recent advances in tin and copper were not maintained, supplies proving fully equal to demands.

Failures of the week number 199 in the United States against 157 last year and 25 in Canada compared with 20 last year.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"My father had for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and tried every means possible to effect a cure, but all to no avail," says John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle of it cured him and he has not suffered with this disease for over eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well and although sixty years of age can do as much work as a young man. These are facts and you can use the above if you desire." Mr. Zirkle and his brother publish the Philippi Republican. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

National Encampment G. A. R. Washington, D. C.

More elaborate plans have been made this year than ever before, and the encampment will go down to posterity as the greatest in the history of the Grand Army.

The Rock Island system has announced a rate of $41.75 for the round trip from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, with correspondingly low rates from other points.

Low excursion rates have also been named to other eastern points, and it is expected that many will avail themselves of the opportunity offered.

How many votes will be cast for governor in the state of Colorado on Nov. 4, 1902? Read advertisement.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Sept. 19.—The mining stock market was devoid of sensation this morning although the bulk of business transacted was large and prices generally strong. Fractional advances were the rule in all lists. Among the mines this was particularly true. With the exception of Elkton and Pharmacist, that sold at lower prices, and Isabella, which lost fractionally, the sales in this list showed slight increases. Prince Albert was a heavy trader, being stimulated by news of a strike, but it sold at the old quotation. In the preferred prospects list the trading was heavy and prices a shade better. Little Nell scored a good advance but Mary Cashen's rise was the feature of the day. There were no losses in this list, all stocks dealt in either remaining stationary or making slight advances. The largest block sold was of Easter Bell. Among the prospects trading was heavy, some good sales being recorded. Golden Age and Prin-Setl both scored good advances and several others gained fractionally. The largest sale was of Leon which made a slight gain. Taken altogether the day on the exchange was a satisfactory one and points to a steady revival.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., to William A. Otis & Co.:

New York, Sept. 19.—The market was more active today and strong throughout. The improvement seemed to be based on the belief that easier money would prevail for some time, or at least that it would not be a repetition of the recent squeeze. The announcement by Secretary of the Treasury Shaw that $10,000,000 of public funds had been placed with the designated depositories was a surprise as it is generally thought that only about half that amount could be taken by reason of scarcity of the free bonds. The situation looks more encouraging but we think that money will continue in good demand around 8 per cent and over. A favorable decision in one of the suits brought to prevent the carrying out of the U. S. Steel corporation conversion plan stimulated the buying in the stocks. The fact that a meeting of Southern Railway directors has been called today was generally known and their failure to act on the preferred dividend had no effect. Demand, $4.85⅝.

J. S. Bache & Co.—The advance in St. Paul this morning imparted a more bullish and confident feeling to traders and investors alike. The undertone to the general list continued to show strength and some marked advances were scored. In the afternoon session Steel became very active on the decision rendered in its favor by the court of errors. This decision is now final and permits of the conversion plan. All the Gould issues were prominent in the trading. There was a strong feeling or belief that the worst of the money squeeze is over and that tomorrow's bank statement will make a better showing than has been expected early in the week by reason of considerable liquidation of weak accounts. While money ruled firm there was less difficulty in procuring the amounts required by brokers until next Monday than was the case last Friday.

Walker Brothers—The Missouri Pacific Railway company has completed or has in progress a scheme of extensions and developments which, it is claimed, will make it in the near future as superior to any other system of roads in the west as the Lake Shore excels any other road in its territory. In brief the Missouri Pacific has now succeeded in paralleling the water ways of its territory. It has a water-line from St. Louis to New Orleans, from Kansas City to St. Louis, a water line along the Arkansas River from Kansas to the Mississippi, and it has now coupled and will shortly complete a line from Kansas City to Memphis on the water grade along the White river, the only water course between the Missouri and the Arkansas rivers. Every extension of the Missouri Pacific has been acquired at cost, without paying any profits, legitimate or otherwise, to supposedly friendly promoters, the owners of the property taking the entire profits from the increased value of their Missouri Pacific stock which they hold. The ultimate result of these water grade lines and the economy of operations secured and the economy of their construction concentrated in the Missouri Pacific stock a further value impossible to measure, which owners of the property feel should make the stock sell fully as high as St. Paul, Rock Island or even Northwestern.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS

Report of Logan & Bryan to William A. Otis & Co.:

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Wheat—Liverpool ⅛ to ⅜c lower, Paris ½c to 1½c lower, Antwerp unchanged. Broomhall cables that Liverpool was dull and easier on American advices and fine weather in the United Kingdom. The market here was again dull but firmer. The strength in corn may have had something to do with the firmness but the noticeable fact remains that with all the dullness and with conditions pretty favorable for a decline the past day or two, there has been no selling pressure on the market. The northwest markets report a good cash demand and the demand in the winter wheat markets today somewhat better. While there is nothing new that was important in the situation yet the continued absence of selling pressure may be significant. It indicates certainly that the market would be likely to respond quickly to encouragement. Northwest stocks are likely to show a decrease for the week. So far as the situation goes, that is bullish. The September option is still a disturbing factor. Surface indications show a large aggregate of short interest, with the holdings in strong hands. We are inclined to think we would try the long side on wheat at moment. Estimated cars, 185.

Corn—Liverpool unchanged to 1-8c lower. While there was nothing new in the situation, tone of the market was much stronger. There was a better local speculative buying, particularly of December corn. Cash demand also reported somewhat better, and it is thought that the stock of contract corn on Monday next will show a large reduction. There is still, we think, a considerable aggregate of short September corn. It is not easy to trace the holdings but from the action of the market and the fact that the liberal arrivals of contract corn have not been delivered at all on September contracts, it looks as if the holdings are probably concentrated. We regard December and May corn as good property and think the shorts in September are possibly taking great chances. Estimated cars, 460.

Oats—The market is dull and rather heavy. The increasing percentage of contract oats are weighing somewhat on the market, and it seems to be without any good support. Cash demand is only fair. Estimated cars, 295.

Provisions—The market is quiet and a shade firmer. There is no change in local conditions in regard to the nearby deliveries. The holdings are in strong hands, but at the moment they seem to be making no effort to sustain prices. The short interests is uncertain. January and May products are influenced a great deal by the action of the corn market.

COTTON MARKET.

Report of McIntyre & Marshall, to William A. Otis & Co.

New York, Sept. 19.—The price of cotton for the fall and winter deliveries made another new high record for the season today by advancing 5 to 8 points over yesterday's close. Later all the advance was lost on general realizing led mostly by some of the old bull interests. The tone at the close continued good. Spot cotton here continues to be quoted at 9 cents, but there is none for sale, except in small lots and the total stock of contract cotton here is reduced to 9,000 bales. On this stock we have witnessed daily transactions in futures since the opening of the week approximating 500,000 bales. Liverpool made a fairly good response, futures advancing 3 1-2 to 4 points and spots firm and unchanged yesterday. There is nothing particularly in the general situation from our recent advices. We are bullish on cotton for a long pull and think it will ultimately sell very much higher.

COPPER LETTER.

Reported by Paine, Webber & Co., to Wm. A. Otis & Co.:

Boston, Sept. 19.—Coppers continued dull. The activity of the New York market is tending to attract traders away from the mining stocks. The metal market is quiet and unchanged. We have reason to believe that the copper situation is stronger than it appears on its face and that improvement now going on will soon be reflected in higher prices.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Summit counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than 24 hours. OFFICE—Tribble's Jewelry Store, 414 Colorado Avenue.

COLORADO CITY, SEPT. 20, 1902.

RESOLUTIONS BY K. P. A.

The grim messenger of death has entered the ranks of Colorado City Ark No. 72, on the morning of September 6, for the first time in the history of the order. On this date occurred the death of Herbert S. Delano.

Therefore, be it resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say: Brother Delano had always been a healthy, rugged young man, and his sudden death came as a great shock to his wife, children, parents and brother; also to his fraternal brothers and sisters and most intimate friends. He was a man of exemplary habits, of strong character, and a son and husband of whom his parents and wife might well be proud. We mourn for one who has passed from this life to that other life of peace and rest, and the flowers strewn upon his casket by the brothers, sisters and friends, shall be a token of our highest regard for him as husband, father and fraternal brother, who was in every way worthy of the respect of his associates, and be it

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Ark, and a copy sent to the bereaved family of our brother, and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in each of our daily papers, and a copy sent to "The Ark Light," the official paper of our order.

Mrs. Geo. C. Taylor,
Mrs. Martha Snodgrass,
L. C. Caldwell,
Committee.

WEAK LUNGS

As Indicated By A Hacking Cough.

Vinol Will Cure Lung Affections.

When you have a cough you are continually fearing something worse.

Do not let yourselves get in this condition. Come and talk to us and let us tell you why we know Vinol is the best thing that you can take for a hacking cough with a tendency to lung trouble.

One of the greatest remedies that has ever been prescribed by physicians for consumption and all wasting diseases is cod liver oil. You know how disagreeable it is to take. We have actually seen people who would rather take their chances than to take that medicine. Now with Vinol this is all different. To be sure it owes its value to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated form the valuable medicinal properties that have made cod liver oil famous for such diseases, but let us remind you that it does not contain any oil or grease that makes the old form of cod liver oil so objectionable and often so impossible to a weakened stomach.

Try our Vinol if you are experiencing any bronchial or lung trouble. It does not upset the stomach. It will do that organ good, not only by creating an appetite but by enabling it to better assimilate the food that is taken into it. It will increase the nourishing properties of this same food, so that the system will take up all the elements it needs to make rich red blood and firm flesh.

When this is done the doors of the system are closed against consumption, and any existing irritation or diseased membrane will be cured.

Mr. Thomas Morton, Stillwater, Maine, says: "My grandson has been troubled with a bad cough lately and learning that Vinol was good for all pulmonary ills, I got a bottle of it for the boy. All I can say is that it proved just the medicine he needed. He now feels much better, and his cough has disappeared."

The reason we promise to refund the cost of Vinol to all who do not experience the benefits that we claim it will bring about, is because we know by experience that it invariably accomplishes everything we claim for it. It is very successful

FIRST PRIZE—W. J. Batchelder of this city was awarded first prize for his tandem exhibit at the Colorado state fair, held at Pueblo.

MARRIED—Justice of the Peace McClelland yesterday united in marriage William Bryant and Miss Theresa D. Loriel, both of Denver.

PRIMARY UNION—The Primary union meets every Saturday at Christian church. Rev. Ormes will talk on "The Life of Joshua," at 2 p. m. Sabbath school lesson at 3:30. Everybody welcome.

CHAUTAUQUA JOURNAL—Copies of the September issue of the Chautauqua Journal have been received at the C. & S. city ticket office for distribution. It is a very good issue.

MOTIONS MONDAY—Judge Cunningham of the district court, will hear motions Monday, September 22, and at that time will also hand down decisions in a number of matters which he has under advisement.

SENT TO JAIL—Moody Hans and Adolph Goldstein were fined $5 and costs and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail yesterday by Justice McClelland. They were accused of stealing some pies belonging to St. John & Barnes.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS—Mike Gould and John Martin were assessed $10 and costs each upon charges of drunkenness by the police magistrate yesterday. Gould paid part of the fine and the remainder was suspended while Martin's fine was also suspended.

SMALL FIRE—Fire yesterday morning did about $150 damage to a house at 220 North Wahsatch, occupied by Frank Edwards, the loss being covered by insurance. The origin of the fire which started in a linen closet in the up-stairs portion, is unknown.

CHAUTAUQUA READING CIRCLE—There will be a meeting at the home of Judge Morris, 308 Colorado avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Chautauqua Reading circle. Let everybody at all interested in Chautauqua work attend.

ACTION FOR DAMAGES—Judge Orr of the county court and a jury are engaged in hearing the testimony in the case of Frank A. Stevens vs. John Hill. The plaintiff is suing for damages alleged to have been sustained by him through an accident to an elevator. The case had not been concluded late yesterday afternoon.

TRAVEL FALLING OFF—Tourist travel has just commenced to show a slight falling off, indicating that the premonitory chilling blasts of the last week or so have their effect upon the travelers. The local agents have enough reservations on hand, however, to run through the next week. Travel to the coast is heavy just now.

DINWOODIE WANTED—The sheriff has received a description of James F. Dinwoodie, a convict who escaped from the Canon City penitentiary. Dinwoodie skipped out while in the vicinity of the United States Smelting plant, and a reward of $50 is offered for his capture. He has a badly deformed nose and is otherwise so well marked that he can hardly escape.

SENT TO PUEBLO—Deputy Sheriff Larrabee went to Pueblo yesterday with Frank Richardson, the unfortunate young man who has been committed to Dr. Work's private sanitarium. The young man has been there before, but was released to the care of his mother. He has recently become addicted to wandering away from his caretakers, however, and the neighbors become alarmed.

WOMAN'S CLUB—The first general meeting of the Woman's club for the year 1902-1903 will occur at the Alta Vista hotel this afternoon at 3 p. m. This is the formal opening of the club for the year, and the meeting will be in charge of the Home and Education department. After the transaction of business and the addresses of the president and chairman, the club will adjourn to the parlors for a social hour, and refreshments will be served.

PIONEERS' PICNIC—About 150 of the pioneers of the county and their friends picnicked at Cheyenne park yesterday. The day was a nice one and a most enjoyable time was had by the old residents of the county.

PRIMARY UNION—Rev. Manly D. Ormes of the Second Congregational church, will address the Primary union at the Christian church this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the subject of "Joshua." There will also be Sabbath school lessons at 3:30. The union meets every Saturday.

NEWS NOTES FROM DENVER

Vigorous Republican Campaign Planned---Alleged Printing Scandal.

Denver Bureau,
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 19.—Chairman Fairley of the Republican state central committee is making preparations for one of the most vigorous campaigns ever conducted in this state. His will be a campaign of education. He has arranged for 500 speeches to be delivered under the auspices of the state central committee. The speeches will be made in every town and hamlet in the state, and it is hoped that every resident of the state who is a voter will have heard the Republican issues and doctrines discussed. Efforts are being made to secure some of the best speakers throughout the east.

The cases of the county commissioners in connection with the alleged printing scandal will come up in the district court tomorrow. Their attorneys have served notice that they will withdraw their pleas of not guilty, and will ask leave to file a motion to quash the information. The district attorney's office has notified the attorneys for the defendant that they will oppose such a motion, but should the court grant it, they will ask that the arguments be made immediately.

A report from Boulder states that Fred Thompson, a ranchman living 3 miles southeast of Bloomfield, was robbed three times last night by robbers. He was also robbed. He is alive today and hopes are held out for his recovery. Two robbers did the work. Thompson was on his way home from Denver. He got $75.

John Kearney, a hod carrier of this city, was struck by a C. & S. train and seriously injured in Idaho Springs this morning. His right foot was crushed, and his ankle broken. He had been working in Idaho Springs during the past two weeks.

The supreme court this morning denied the application of H. B. O'Reilly for a rehearing of the action which was brought by Mr. O'Reilly, in which he sought to prevent the secretary of state from having printed the new proposed constitutional amendment. This was the attempt to prevent the submission of the amendment to the people this fall.

The Democratic county central committee opened headquarters in the St. James hotel this morning. From that place the Democratic county and state campaign will be conducted.

The district attorney of Arapahoe county this morning discovered the Santa Fe freight wreck last week, in which three men were killed, occurred in Douglas, instead of Arapahoe county. Therefore the coroner of Douglas county must conduct another inquest. Coroner Horan of this county conducted an inquest the first of the week, and held certain members of the crew responsible for the wreck. It was upon this report that the district attorney's office intended to act, but this morning it was discovered that the Douglas authorities are the ones that should look into the matter.

NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

Democratic County Convention Today Will Be Doubly Interesting.

Pueblo Bureau,
Colorado Springs Gazette
With Colorado Securities Company.

Pueblo, Sept. 19.—The Democratic county convention tomorrow gives promise of being very interesting, doubly so since under today's supreme court decision, there will be two commissioners instead of one to nominate. Barney Evans, John Warner and E. A. Divilbiss are talked of for that position. For representative John A. Martin, J. S. Greene and Andrew Park are the men spoken of. J. G. Allard and W. P. Burnard are also mentioned as dark horses. A resolution will be sprung on the convention which it is thought by the originators will add great strength to the Democratic legislative ticket. This resolution will have for its purpose the pledging of the candidates to do all possible to pass a law making judicial officers incompetent to hold their positions if they ride on railway passes.

The twenty-ninth senatorial district convention, Democratic, comprising Pueblo, Teller and Fremont counties, will take place here at 2 o'clock tomorrow if the county convention gets out of the way by that time. There is a prospect that Pueblo will have two candidates, and that McGuire of Fremont will have the best show unless one of these pulls out of the race, as it will require the entire Pueblo vote and twenty out of Teller to nominate. The question seems to be right now whether or not Candidate Stimson of Cripple Creek desires a Pueblo or a Fremont county man on the senatorial ticket.

The county commissioners were this morning equalizing the saloon taxes. Not many were lowered but some were raised. The proposed compromise or valuation offered by the railroad companies will probably be accepted by the Pueblo board.

A large Santa Fe locomotive drawing train No. 603 from Kansas City, jumped the track in the Pueblo yards this afternoon. Both engineer and fireman were somewhat hurt, though not seriously, and two trucks were torn up for fifty feet in both directions.

Thomas Bartlett, said to be a heavy drinker, 62 years of age, was found dead late last night under a tree near the Goodnight ranch west of the city. The coroner has taken charge of the remains, but has decided that it is not necessary to hold an inquest.

The rail mill and the wire mill, both large brick buildings at the steel works, will be completed and ready for the installation of machinery tomorrow.

Work has begun on the One new United Brethren church edifice on the corner of Pine street and Northern avenue.

Over 250 houses, mostly of the better grade, are at the present time in course of construction within a half mile south of the water works tower.

Mrs. Henry Jones of Rocky Ford is here looking for her husband, who came up to spend one day at the fair, but who instead of returning as per schedule is said to have gone off with two fair females. And there seems to be trouble ahead.

Assistant Master Mechanic C. E. Dewing of the Rio Grande has resigned his position and has gone east to accept a good place on one of the big roads.

STATE FAIR.

Special to the Gazette.

Pueblo, Sept. 19.—Tom Johnson of Loveland, known to old-time Colorado politicians as the cowboy statesman, was one of the judges in the baby show at the fair today. Just why he was chosen none have been able to tell, except it be on account of the name of the town he hails from—Loveland. The other judges were Mrs. P. W. Taylor of St. Louis and Mrs. M. E. Snow of Canon City. There were forty-three competing infants. Three prizes were awarded, all to Pueblo juveniles. The educational department in the fair was one of the most interesting to all visitors, especially to the 8,000 school children present today. Almost every branch taught in the schools was demonstrated with the work of the pupils.

Tomorrow, the last day, will be Bessemer day, and the effect of the $300,000 pay day of the steel works will be substantially seen and felt. There is to be a negro baby show and there will be great disappointment on the part of the general public if Messrs. Peabody and Stimson, the candidates for governor, are not present to act as judges. In the forenoon there will be a grand parade of all premium live stock. The afternoon will be taken up with all kinds of horse racing. The gate money taken in today and tomorrow will represent the increase of the attendance over last year. Yesterday the street car company carried 27,000 people.

A REDUCTION PLANT AT GRAND JUNCTION

Grand Junction, Sept. 19.—A reduction plant capable of treating 10 tons of ore per day is to be erected in this city by Charles E. Carpenter and brother, John Carpenter, of Cincinnati, Ohio. The gentlemen were in the city yesterday and today to look over several sites and they are desirous of having the county commissioners build a public road to Rock Creek in order to give an outlet to the LaSal country ore which will be brought to this city for treatment. The ore is treated by a chemical process and the work has been done at the mines heretofore but they are desirous of erecting a better plant in this city where it will be an easier matter to get the necessary chemicals.

Word reached this city today that Bert Ennor and party, of White Water, who have been on the trail of horse thieves for the past several days, ran them to ground in San Juan county, Utah, yesterday and in a fight with them one of the thieves was killed. About a week ago Ennor missed a number of horses from the range on Pinon mesa.

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Republican Headquarters Opened in the Welty Block---Short Line Officials.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Sept. 19.—The Republicans of Teller county have opened commodious headquarters on the second floor of the Welty block at Second street and Bennett avenue. Four large rooms have been secured, and comfortably furnished. Captain W. P. K. Hendrie, chairman of the county central committee, and Harold D. Thompson, secretary, are in charge. In arranging the headquarters, the ladies of the party have not been overlooked. One room has been set aside for them, at which members of the party are always welcome. There is every indication here that the Republicans will carry Teller county by a large majority this fall.

A special train over the Short Line brought a party of the officials of this road into the district this morning. In the party were Superintendent F. J. Smith, Directors Irving Howbert, W. Jennox, F. M. Woods, E. W. Giddings, Jr., J. F. Burns, F. G. Peck, K. R. Babbitt, H. G. Lunt and J. G. Shields. After an inspection of the district and the mines, the members of the party came to Cripple Creek for luncheon. They returned to Colorado Springs this afternoon.

The Cripple Creek Chamber of Commerce has named its representatives to the National Irrigation congress which convenes this year at Colorado Springs. The delegates are A. E. Carlton, president of the chamber, and Arthur J. Francis, the secretary. Both gentlemen will attend the meeting.

The school board held a short session this morning in the High School building. The resignation of Miss Bolan as principal of the Golden street school was accepted, and J. J. Downey was appointed to fill the vacancy.

SIDEACHE, backache and headache, make a three-fold cord of suffering by which many a woman is almost helplessly bound. It is a very ancient saying that a three-fold cord is not easily broken, and many a woman has proved the truth of that saying in her struggles to be free from the bondage of her suffering. Sometimes these bonds of suffering bind a woman fast to her bed. Sometimes she manages to be up but "cannot work and can hardly stand." In any case she is in continual misery day and night.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription breaks these bonds of suffering and sets women free. It not only takes away pain, but it restores the general health perfectly and permanently. It cures sideache, backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, and other ills of women, by curing the womanly diseases that cause them. In cases where there is backache and sideache, there is almost always some form of womanly disease, described as "uterine trouble," "bearing-down pains," or "female weakness," as in the letters printed below. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures these womanly diseases and as a consequence cures the aches and pains these diseases cause.

"My wife, Mrs. Mary Estes, has been taking your medicine and received great benefit from it," writes Mr. Geo. Wm. Estes, of Springgrove, Va. "Was troubled with female weakness, heavy bearing-down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worn-out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could hear of, but they did no good. Finally, we wrote to you, and my wife commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription.' Took ten bottles, and is in better health than before in a long time. We shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all who are thus afflicted."

Mr. Estes writes of his wife that he "tried all the remedies we could hear of but they did no good." Then "Favorite Prescription" was used with the usual beneficial results. This is only one case in many in which "Favorite Prescription" has cured when all other medicines "did no good." It is this fact which gives this wonderful medicine the greatest claim on the attention of suffering women. When doctors have said that there was no hope of cure, or a possible hope only by an operation; when years have been spent in "doctoring" with no permanent benefit, the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has completely cured womanly disease and all its aches and pains and given to the sick and suffering perfect and permanent health. Can any sick or weak woman afford to neglect a means of cure so powerfully commended and wonderfully successful?

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. This brief statement of fact could be supported by pages of detail in which weak women tell of the joys of their new found strength and sick women of the happiness of perfect health. One woman tells of the joy of being perfectly free from headache, backache and all other aches and pains. Another of her happiness in being well and able once more to work for her family. Others dwell not only upon feeling well but upon the gain in flesh, the change from emaciation to plumpness, from hollow, saffron cheeks, to a clear skin and a rosy complexion. Every one of the letters written by the women who have been cured of womanly ills by "Favorite Prescription" is a practical essay on the blessing of perfect health.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from female weakness and uterine trouble," writes Mrs. J. Muschinski, Marathon, Marathon County, Wis. "Was so weak that I could do no work, and could hardly stand. Suffered from bearing-down pains, headache, pain in left side and back, and pain near the heart. Also had catarrh, breath was short and I had a dry cough. Was nervous, felt downhearted and had but little hope for recovery. After reading your 'Medical Adviser,' I wrote to you for advice. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I followed your advice, and after taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' my troubles left me, and I feel like a new person. I can cheerfully recommend your medicines to all suffering, weak women."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. As a tonic and nervine for weak, worn-out, run-down women it is unsurpassed.

Reference is made in the letters published above to free medical consultation by letter, with Dr. R. V. Pierce. This opportunity is extended to all weak and sick women, who are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All letters are held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is SENT FREE on receipt of stamps, to pay expense of mailing ONLY. This great work contains more than one thousand large pages and over 700 illustrations. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

PERSONS AND PRINCIPLES.

IT IS ALREADY apparent that the Democrats in Colorado realize that the chances of success for that party are much less than in recent years. Instead of marching forward with an air of assured victory, that party clearly on the defensive, and is planning its campaign along those lines.

In no county of the state are the new Democratic tactics better understood than in El Paso, where we have had the Democracy "on the run" for some time past, and where that party in city and county campaigns habitually employs the methods that are now becoming manifest to the people of the state.

It is, for instance, nothing new for the voters of Colorado Springs to be asked to disregard the political principles of a candidate and the public record of the party he represents, and to vote for him for the alleged reason that his personal character is better than that of the party whose candidate he is. Such a plea is a common one in communities where the Democracy is in the minority, and it occasionally proves effective with some inexperienced Republican voter.

But as a matter of fact no candidate for any office within the gift of the people is able to rise above the character of the party that nominates him or the general level of his political associates. No man could be nominated for any political office who was not expected to promote the policies and to observe the wishes of the party that elected him, and no man can honestly ask for votes upon a pretense of anything else. The successful candidate is bound to pay some deference and respect to the men who helped him get elected and who are his associates in directing and sustaining the political party with which he is connected.

The plea that a Democratic candidate for governor, or congressman, or alderman is better than his party is a dishonest one, and if it were true it would be a discreditable reflection upon the political honesty and sincerity of the candidate who had accepted a nomination from the party he is said to despise.

Further than that, why should any Republican who has political principles and who believes that Republican predominance in state and nation is necessary for the well-being of himself and his fellow Americans, be asked to sacrifice his conscientious conclusions upon the motives of personal acquaintance or interest? The people of this state are not asked to vote upon the question, Is John Jones a gentleman or a blackguard? That may be a matter of supreme interest to Jones, but it is not of vital importance to the people of Colorado. What they are trying to decide is whether the state government shall be continued in the hands of reckless, incompetent and disgraceful Democracy, or whether it shall be intrusted to Republicans, and also whether Colorado's vote and influence in the national congress shall be given for or against the American policy of progress, enlightenment and prosperity.

The Gazette is very strongly of the opinion that when the voters of Colorado have carefully considered the issues of the present campaign they will have resolved to have done with Democratic folly, incompetence, sacrifice of political principle and opposition to everything American. If any voters in the state, or a majority of them, honestly believe that the success of the Democratic party and its candidates will tend towards the honor, the welfare and the advancement of the state and its people, we trust that they will support their political principles by their votes. But certainly no Republican voter should be misled into making any personal promise at this time which surely involves a sacrifice of political principles and which will in all probability be a matter of regret before the campaign is over. And no independent voter should decide for or against any candidate until he has given careful attention to the political situation and then he should govern his political action not by personal partiality or prejudice but by an honest desire to do what is best for himself as a citizen and for his fellow citizens of this state.

THE TROUBLES IN CHINA.

FROM time to time the Gazette has commented upon the reports of renewed and continued disturbances in China and has pointed out the great probability of an uprising even greater than that which led to the march upon Peking. The most recent reports are even more alarming than those that have preceded them, and they are accompanied by a declaration from Minister Conger which fully confirms their seriousness.

The locality of the recent troubles is the province of Szechuen, the largest, most populous and most western of the Chinese territorial divisions. It has an area slightly larger than that of California and a population estimated at 68,000,000. The difficulty of protecting the treaty rights of foreigners will be immensely increased by the distance from the coast. Fortunately the imperial government appears to be acting with as much strength as it is capable of exercising, and it is to be hoped that it will have as much success as it has already achieved in the northern and southern provinces. The spirit of unrest and of revenge seems to prevail throughout China, and great changes may be expected within a comparatively short period. It will be well for China and the world if these changes can be made peacefully and in such a way as to involve no great losses of life and property.

The railroads have made a special rate for the coming irrigation congress in Colorado Springs of one fare for the round trip from all points in the state. This will be open to the general public and will doubtless result in bringing many visitors to the city, outside of the delegates to the congress.

THE VALUE OF THE NORTH POLE.

THERE are certain very good reasons why the earth should turn about its axis. Some of these are apparent to the cosmologists, while others are hid in the depths of infinite wisdom. Having an axis, the earth necessarily has two poles, and one of these is distinguished in English speech by the adjective north. The north pole therefore is an essential part of the present creation, and if there were no north pole, man, it may be presumed, would be an entirely different animal, if indeed there were anything that could be designated by such an appellation.

It is not the scientific value of the north pole that we propose to consider, but rather its benefit as an object of search. What a disappointment it would have been to all future explorers, and what a loss to all the world if Baldwin or Peary had returned successful from his search.

Instead of that both these modern explorers came back more firmly convinced than ever that the pole can be reached—but they did not reach it.

Discoverable, but undiscovered; therein lies the charm. So long as these conditions prevail the pole will continue to provoke human effort, and anything that tends to provoke human effort is a valuable thing.

After the north pole has been visited something else will doubtless be found to take its place and to provoke men to deeds of daring and endurance and endeavor. The world is full of such things and it is because of them that man's progress continues. The problems that have been conquered are the foundations of our powers and possessions, and the problems that remain are the possibilities of our future progress.

The north pole is particularly tantalizing; therefore it is particularly valuable. It is just beyond our reach, in sight, almost, but thus far eternally elusive. A more difficult task would repel rather than attract, but this one can be done and will be done, and each explorer counts himself as the one to do it. And the benefit of his effort comes not only to himself but to all the race. The failure of an Arctic expedition makes more for human progress than the accomplishment of a hundred easy tasks.

It is no great thing in itself to discover the north pole; but it is an immeasurable benefit to the entire race of mankind to keep on trying to reach things and places hitherto unattained, and to solve problems hitherto uncomprehended.

The search for the north pole will cease only when the pole is found, or when the motive power of human progress is exhausted.

THE HENDERSON RESIGNATION AS CAMPAIGN MATERIAL.

IT IS RATHER DIFFICULT to see how the refusal of Speaker Henderson to stand for re-election is going to benefit Democratic argument in this campaign.

The Republican convention of Iowa adopted a resolution favoring the revision of the tariff as a remedy for trusts. Shortly afterwards Mr. Henderson sent in his refusal to be a congressional candidate for the reason that he did not agree with this action of his party.

It would appear therefore that Mr. Henderson is out of the race because the Republican party of Iowa is not in favor of protection for trust products. If the position of the Democrats is a sincere one they ought to approve the position assumed by the Iowa Republicans and turn in to help elect Mr. Henderson's successor, who will, presumably, be in full accord with his party associates upon this matter.

UNUSUAL, BUT TIMELY.

VR. JAMES H. PEABODY, the Republican candidate for governor of Colorado, shows a clear appreciation of public sentiment by his declaration made at the Denver meeting on Thursday:

> "I have no personal political ambition higher than the gubernatorial chair of Colorado. I have no desire to succeed myself, go to congress, or be a United States senator. If I am successful in this race, I want to promise you that after my term expires I will return to my business at home, feeling that I have served my state to my best ability."

As a general rule there is certainly nothing discreditable in a fair ambition on the part of a governor to succeed himself or to aspire to higher political honors from the hands of the people. But Colorado has suffered so much from ambitious men who have made their own personal advancement the chief and exclusive object of their acts, and the affairs of this state and its interests have been so wofully neglected, and the powers and prerogatives of the executive department have been so diverted from their proper channels in the desire to build up and strengthen political and personal machines, that there is a widespread sentiment in favor of a candidate for the position of governor who will start his campaign with the honest declaration that he is not a candidate for re-election, nor for congress nor for the United States senate.

The Gazette undoubtedly voiced the public sentiment when it demanded some days ago, in advance of the convention, that its candidate should be such a one, and it is now glad to note that Mr. Peabody has shown such a quick appreciation of what the people desire.

Such a pledge would be unnecessary under ordinary circumstances, but it is especially gratifying and welcome under present conditions.

A governor sincerely devoted to the interests of the state, a business administration divorced as much as possible from politics, and utter change and reform from recent methods and practices is a most attractive program and one that will most certainly find favor with the voters.

Now is the right time of year for every resident of Colorado Springs to do what he can to increase the number of our winter visitors. There are many thousands of persons who would be glad to visit this city and to remain here for several weeks during the winter season if the matter was brought to their attention. These include not only the invalids and semi-invalids but many others who are able and desire to escape from the frosts and fogs of the winter months at the Atlantic coast or in the interior. The railroads are giving particular attention to this winter tourist business and their efforts should be supplemented by individuals. With proper exertion on our part Colorado Springs may be as well filled in December and January as in July and August.

The prompt support of the British government to Secretary Hay's Roumanian note is in striking contrast with the comments of some English newspapers. We have frequent reason to feel well pleased that the British government is not in the hands of a certain minority of that people.

Much to the regret of the people of Colorado, and we are certain to that also of the president, the western trip as now planned does not include this state. Leavenworth, Kansas, appears to be the limit.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

Irrigation As a Civilizer.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Among the many far-reaching and beautiful features of irrigation to be discussed at the coming congress in Colorado Springs, none ought to receive more emphasis than the social and moral effect on those who will people the reclaimed lands.

The bringing into market and under cultivation of the millions of acres of now waste lands may be estimated in dollars and cents. The value to the nation of an added population of 50,000,000 to 75,000,000 of people whom these waste lands can be made to sustain, may be approximated, and either phase of the question is of such vast importance as to take it out of the realm of sectional discussion and make it of truly national import.

But the most important though perhaps the most intangible benefit which irrigation has to offer is in creating a new order of civilization. Man has a dual nature to be satisfied. He can not thrive physically away from constant contact with the soil from which he sprang. His instincts are gregarious, and he cannot thrive intellectually away from constant contact with his fellows.

Our present style of civilization presents two extremes, either of which is hurtful. To till the soil under the present system requires large spaces of unpopulated land. The farmer must dwell apart from all those intellectual influences which broaden a man and raise him above a mere beast of burden. The city dweller is shut up in tenements away from pure air and sunshine, and quickly becomes a physical degenerate.

It is in the nature of irrigation to bring these extremes closer together. To be economically tilled, irrigated lands must be minutely subdivided, and each plot be constantly under the eye of the individual owner. The water privileges are more valuable than the land, and hence homes in the farming areas will be placed closely together instead of far apart, as now. All the social advantages now enjoyed by cities will be carried into the country, and the overcrowding in tenements and congested districts will become a thing of the past.

Under irrigation there would be less of country and less of town. This is the history of every land where irrigation has been practiced. Its tendency is to multiply homes, and to the owners of homes a country must always look for a conservation of its best interests. It is a natural fact that wherever the soil of a country is in the possession of the many, its prosperity is always on the rise, and the downfall and decay of a country is invariably marked by the gathering of the lands into the hands of the few.

It needs no gift of prophesy to foresee in the semi-arid region of the west, especially over the vast plains to the eastward of the front range of the Rocky mountains, an immense population that shall be pioneers in the new civilization. In the nature of events it is bound to come, even if left to the slow process of individual effort, but under the wise protection of the national government it will come as if by magic, and gladden the eyes of the generations now on earth as well as of those all time to come.

Justice to Clairvoyants.

To the Editor of the Gazette.

Dear Sir:—In your issue of the morning paper Wednesday, September 17, I noticed an article written by "A Gentleman" who claimed that all palmists, mediums and clairvoyants were fakes and grafters. But I can assure you that this is not so, as they are not all impostors and there is just as good people in this business as any other. In return I would like to say a few words in behalf of these people. In the first place, I will admit that some remarks this gentleman has made are very true, for instance he says the shrewder the fakir the better is he able to pay the fee, and he also made a statement that there were a great many ignorant people in this profession, but everybody knows there are bad and good in every business.

The gentleman says we should not take money for our services. Well, why do doctors, lawyers, ministers of the church and other professions in life take money? I will tell you: it is because we are compelled to do so to carry on the work, and if you investigate you will find that psychology is taught to your children in some of the schools. Then why should palmistry, phrenology and other forms of life reading be condemned as they are all a science and in many cases the things that have been foretold by the prophets of this art have come to pass in every instance. As you all know, life would be nothing without hope and many a sad heart has been consoled and made happier by those people, for as the bible says in the 33d chapter of Job, "In the hands of all men God placed some signs that they could thus know their works." Therefore, I say let those who are doing good go on with the work and if you must condemn those who are guilty, give justice to those who deserve it.

Yours respectfully,

Phil Garland.

SEPTEMBER SHOOTING.

The Beginning of the Season for Hunters.

In most of the states the middle of the month sees the beginning of the open season on squirrels, rabbits, ruffed grouse and woodcock. The gray squirrels have become such familiar and close acquaintances in public parks and on private grounds that to many the shooting of them is very like war on old friends. Nevertheless the sport has many keen followers, for the wild gray is a gentleman of no mean skill in keeping a tree between himself and possible harm. While many are killed in these early days of the open season the leaves are too thick for good sport, and a month hence the squirrels will have become enough fatter to amply repay patience. Grouse cling to the retirement of deep woods, and save when found taking dust baths in the road, are difficult to flush where a fairly open shot may be obtained. Towards the end of the month those long-billed lovers of damp thickets, whose quick flight and delicate dark flesh are the delight of all sportsmen, the American woodcock, begin to drop into favorite haunts. These "flight birds," as the transients are called in the vernacular of the gunner, are fairly regular in the date of their appearance.—(Country Life in America.

Mining Camps in Colorado and Elsewhere.

To one not financially concerned, mining camps present many objects of interest from a human standpoint. Houses in hundreds, perhaps thousands, scattered over the hillsides, without order or regularity, suggestive more of crystalized hailstones after a storm than a deliberate plan of a home—in very many cases covered with red paper held together by thin laths, just a shelter from sun and storm, irresponsible, unpremeditated log-ging shanties, yet holding men with wants, wishes and desires as strong and perhaps more uncurbed than are possessed by the world of cities, of cultivation and refinement. I think that when we consider the freedom from conventional world of cities, of cultivation and religious control of family life in older communities, it is a matter of surprise that so much decency of life prevails in our mining camps, and so little of the crime due to unbridled passion. It may be that the regulation of pay, and hours of work, by diminishing the fierce spirit of competition may account for this.

Eight hours constitute a "shift," for which $3.00 is the pay of an ordinary miner, and the question here arises, what is he to do during the sixteen hours which are his own—for my part I cannot see how he can possibly keep out of mischief.

Gambling has been rigidly suppressed in this state, and the paraphernalia destroyed. Saloons are in a measure following suit, and be it remembered that the saloon is the working man's club, this is the case with the ale house in country districts of England. Churches and Salvation armies fight vice but provide no remedy for idleness, nor provision for amusement. Are there not men and women who are interested in the betterment of their fellows, who would help in the establishment of co-operative coffee rooms, with reading rooms, library and gymnasium attached—with billiards and other games as desired—the government to be in the hands of the subscribers? Do, not don't, is the best lever for lifting character out of the mud of animalism and despondency. M. A. G.

DEER HUNTING.

The Long-Looked-for Sport That Opens in September.

To the true sportsman who seeks these rugged mountain sides in quest of his just allotment of venison, September is the month to be looked forward to all the year through. In what glory are the mountains robed, for already are the frost's brushes at work in these higher altitudes? Despite the falling of the leaves, the foliage is still a trifle thick, perhaps, and yet for this very cause is the sport the keener. What a tonic is the clear frosty air of the day-dawn? In the stillness of the great forest sere and yellow leaves flutter earthward, and the noise of their rustling accentuates the silence. From the black shadow of the opposite shore the maniacal laughter of a loon suddenly rings across the lake and finds a distant echo. The splash of a muskrat jars harshly on tense nerves. Gradually the light fills the forest aisles. With cautious step and ready rifle, you seek the slash where yesterday you found the sign. Verily now does a heartbeat seem audible. Despite your utmost care, now again a stick snaps or a clutching brush, suddenly released, springs back noisily. But what is that beyond the tangle of fallen tree-tops? A clear eye and a steady hand now or—"missed!" Well, and is not the chagrin tempered with an unacknowledged satisfaction that yonder beautiful antlered buck, bounding lightly over fallen trees, is, after all, not to lose one impulse of his splendid vigor because of lust of yours? Verily it is not all of hunting to kill. But, striding campward in the gathering shadows, empty of hand save for the rifle, the opinion of the great wood falls upon him who is a fellow of true sportsmanship, and in his heart is the song of a mountain brook and in his soul a new delight, because of something in the mystery of life which in the solitude of the forest has entered therein, and because of a deeper realization of the marvel which men call instinct, against which his wit and reason has been of no avail. So, though he bring naught of spoil, he will answer the hail from the red circle of the camp fire, and it will be "Peace,"—(Country Life in America.

A Practical Profit-Sharing Scheme.

The arrangement is a very simple one. Each operative who wishes to take part in the profit-sharing is required to sign a paper agreeing to give notice of 60 days before leaving, and also to do all in his power to save expenses, and, in short, to render the business successful. In consideration of this a certain proportion of the net profits—known only to the proprietor, but always the same proportion—is divided among the profit-sharers pro rata, according to their wages, during the period just elapsed. In the writer's case the profits are calculated every six months. The profits are paid—one-half in cash to the participant, and one-half is placed in a savings bank by the proprietor as trustee for the employe. If the employe dies in the service, his heirs are at once entitled to the accumulated fund in the savings bank, with interest.

If the operative desires to leave the works, and gives the required 60 days' notice, the fund remains at interest two years in the bank, and is then handed over to the operative, provided he has not sold the secrets or formulas he may have learned in the course of his employment in these works.

In case the employe should not keep his part of the agreement—should, for instance, organize a strike, stopping work without the required notice of 60 days—his accumulated profit, which is only contingent upon his adherence to the promise made to the employer, does not come back to the latter, but is divided into two equal parts, one of which is apportioned in cash among the operatives who have adhered to their bargain, and the other is added pro rata to their funds in the savings bank. It seems to the writer that it is of great importance that the money once divided should never come back to the employer again, as otherwise it would give room to suspicion that men were discharged in order to obtain their accumulated savings. If a man is discharged for cause, the employer has the right to turn his accumulation over to the faithful men who have kept their promises. There has been—in the writer's experience—but one attempt to systematically break this agreement, an attempt early in the arrangement to organize a strike. The result was a loss on the strikers' part of a considerable sum of money and the division of that sum among those who respected their promises. The strike lasted two days, and has never been repeated, the strikers begging to be taken back on the old terms.—(From "An Instance of Profit-Sharing," by Samuel Cabot, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for September.

Rondeau in Ratio.

Alas! for me! I'm fancy free;
I say "alas," because, you see,
The while some chaps their freedom prize,
I know a pair of hazel eyes
That always seem to smile at me.

I cannot make a fervent plea,
Nor woo upon a bended knee,
She laughs at me until she cries,
Alas! for me!

Another chap there is, and he
Has fortune and a pedigree;
And armed with these he vainly tries
To win her love; but she replies:
"I'll wait awhile." Now, can she be
A jade for me?

Petrarch.

Thou only, Petrarch, struck the vibrant lyre
For one alone;
And, with thy Laura's fame as heart's desire,
Achieved thine own.

Voiceless until she came, and then inspired
To matchless song.
Thy precious adoration never tired
Thy lifetime long.

And when, o'erborne with grief at Laura's death
Thy love held away,
Poet, behold, by thy immortal breath
She lives today!
